SAINT JOHN, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1909.

MR. TWEEDALE ON THE STUMP

d in time that Mr. Tweedale is a very long "Many Liberals bitterly resent the shame being put and that he carries about with him more mis- upon their party under the flagrantly hypocritical moton than even Mr. Copp. An episode of last to 'no graft; no deals.' shows how unreliable Mr. Tweedale is when he speaks in the Legislature. He is of course much didate, are handicapped by an undeserved share in the shame which a corrupt and self-serving machine has

In the debate on the address, Mr. Tweedale charged the Surveyor General with appointing useless game war. are threatening the party in this constituency. He said of these officers: "They were attendother business and drawing pay from both "pointed game warden, yet since his appointment he *pointed game warden, yet since his appointment he "From this seed of discontent there has grown and is growing a lack of harmony in the local Liberal or-"had been drawing his pay there, while he understood ganization which, on the verge of an election, is no "he had been drawing his pay as game warden as well, "a fact that showed the utter lack of business capacity "of the Government."

On the day that Mr. Tweedale made this statement, for their own greed." Surveyor General Grimmer telegraphed to Grand Falls: Fredericton, N. B., March 24, 1909. "Charles Curliss, Grand Falls:-Tweedale in speech

"Charles Curliss, Grand Falls:—Iweedate in speech "tonight, said Vassoir, while acting as game warden un"der pay, has been working every day in Burgess' milli caneer," every "parasite," every "self seeker," to use the "sand has been paid by him. Is this true? Answer at "Sun's fine phrases, who profited out of the late ProSun's fine phrases, who profited out of the late ProSun's fine phrases, who profited out of the late Pro-"once. Urgent.
"(Signed.) W. C. H. Grimmer."

"(Signed)

C. Curliss."

Later Mr. Grimmer read in the House a letter from Mr. Curliss stating that William Vassoir had immediately on his appointment left the employ of Mr. Burgess and was in the woods at his duty within forty-eight hours. It was announced that this warden was ready to go to Fredericton and meet Mr. Tweedale face to face. Mr. Grimmer said his department did not propose to allow that the "buccaneers" have ceased to be buccaneers, or Fredericton and meet Mr. Tweedale face to face. Mr. Grimmer said his department did not propose to allow statements like this to drop without full inquiry.

Then Mr. Tweedale made the humiliating acknowledge of the matter. He was only repeating what his colledgue had told him. Mr. Grimmer did not propose to allow Mr. Tweedale to crawl away from his charges or retract them.

Here is another instance. Mr. Tweedale charged that the Ontario loan was floated in Ontario that the Government had appointed to the position of scaler, John B. Stevenson and added: "Stevenson was "a defaulter, a discredit to the county of Victoria and a "discredit to the province."

Mr. Flemming interrupted to say that he had been in Victoria county a good deal and this was the first time he, ever heard a word against Mr. Stevenson who he thought was as good a citizen as Mr. Tweedale. Mr. Tweedale, Mr. Tweedale rejoined: "I have never been in jail," how the Telegraph leads that the Ontario loan was time he, ever heard a word against Mr. Stevenson. It was told that the main thing is to look neat. White the province was a word and with a first lime he, ever heard a word against Mr. Stevenson who he thought was as good a citizen as Mr. Tweedale. Mr. Tweedale rejoined: "I have never been in jail," how the Telegraph pleads that the Ontario loan was time he, ever heard a word against Mr. Stevenson. It was told that time. This also is incorrect with the main thing is to look neat. Now the Telegraph pleads that the Ontario loan was time he averaged the funds of the Foresters."

The loans were made about the same date. The loans were

"able citizen, and a neighbor, Mr. John R. Stevenson. It
"was-a menn and contemptible thing for the Hon. mem"ber while protected by his position in the House to "attack a man who was not in a position to defend him"self. He had accused Mr. Stevenson of being a jail-bird,
"and an embezzler, statements which, if made outside the
"House, he would have to answer for."

Here again Mr. Tweedale "crawled out." He said:

"The province has paid Mr. Copp $1,425 for alleged

The province has paid Mr. Copp $1,425 for alleged

"The province has paid Mr. Copp $1,425 for alleged

"MR. COPP'S $1,425.

MR. COPP'

"and an embezzler, statements which, if made outside the "House, he would have to answer for."

Here again Mr. Tweedale "crawled out." He said:

"I did not accuse Mr. Stevenson. What I said was that." I had never been in jail, had never embezzled the funds "of the Foresters, and had never appropriated to my own "use the money of the men of the Militia."

Mr. Grimmer said that Mr. Tweedale had tried to encourage the impression to the House that Mr. Stevenson was guilty of these things. "He now admits that "he is not manly enough to stand up in the open and "nake these statements, but he deals in innuendo and "he basest kind of inference. I knew that he had a "craven spirit, but did not think before that he had a "craven spirit, but did not think before that he had a telephone measage from Mr. Stevenson, saying that Mr. Tweedale's statements were false, "that he had never been in jail, and that so far as embezzling the funds of the Foresters was concerned, he was now chief "ranger of that order and had never wrongfully taken money belonging to militia men." Mr. Stevenson was the time a school teacher at Afthurette, under license from the Board of Education, and if Mr. Tweedale's barges had been true, it would be a serious reflection in the late board.

Now that we are to have Mr. Tweedale in the courty, it is well to know what his statements are march."

The rovince has pald Mr. Copp $1,425 for alleged the will not offind out what he did not find out what he did not find out what he did for the money.

No vouchers or accounts were filed giving the items haking up this $1,425.

Mr. Copp gave evidence but did not disclose any services, at much value, and the commissioners reported that "Mr. Copp's evidence shows clearly that he had money had his serious federal that Mr. Tweedale's back of the foresters was concerned, he was now chief "ranger of that order and had never wrongfully taken money belonging to militia men." Mr. Stevenson as well for every one that takes place and comes from the Board of Education, and if

Now that we are to have Mr. Tweedale in the cour, it is well to know what his statements are worth.

STORY OF THE VALLEY RAILWAY INTERVIEW

Speaking of the Valley Railway, Mr. J. P. Malaney, or of the Woodstock Press, says that he was the only spaper editor present at all the meetings of the gation, and the only one present at the meeting with laters. He and one other furnished all the reports were given out. He now proceeds to tell in detail thappened at the interview with the Government:—"W. E. Poster and other delegates put forward Press Hassen's proposal that the Government should con-

"Premier Laurier asked if there were any other "speakers.

"F. B. Carvell, M. P., replied that Hon. J. K. Flem"ming was present and would like to make a few remarks.

"The Provincial Secretary briefly stated that the "Government was prepared to carry out any promises

"Then it was that Sir Wilfrid Laurier remarked that
"the proposition was a definite one could be County."

"Then it was that Sir Wilfrid Laurier remarked that "the proposition was a definite one and the Government would give its answer in a few days.

"At the banquet which followed, Hon. Mr. Graham "was not present, but Hon. Messrs. Pugsley, Murphy, "Oliver and Fielding, and Messrs. Turgeon and McLean, "M. P.'s, assured the writer that no doubt the Government would accept the proposition. Neither of them "suggested that Provincial legislation was required before the Dominion Government could act. Each and every"one of them admitted that the proposition made by "the local Government, and submitted to the Premier, "was a definite one."

To this inquiry the following reply was received:—
Grand Falls, March 25, 1903.

"W. C. H. Grimmer, Fredericton:—Tweedale lies.

"In and graft, is hard at work, trying to get the old crowd back again. Let it not be supposed for a moment that the old issues are dead. They are alive so long as the late Government machine is trying to destroy the Hazen Government, and bring back the old regime. This by-election is part of a general campaign. If the opposition succeed they will claim the result as a vindication of everything that the people condemned last year. The election of Mr. Barkley condemned last year.

The Telegraph is making the same sort of fight against Mr. Hazen that it recently made against Aiderman Baxter. There are the same indications of success.

An examination of the official nominators of Mr. sher reveals the names of several men who voted

The Telegraph certainly ought to correct its dredging figures, to show that $35,933 went to one of its own reprietors.
