June Weddings

Teed-Dickenson.

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends in this city and throughout the province, was solemnized yesterday afternoon in Queen Square Methodist Church, when Miss Rita Pauline Dickenson, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. W. Dickenson, Lansdowne House, 40 King Square, became the bride of George Clayton Teed, son of Mrs. G. A. Teed, 72 Queen Street. The church was artistically decorated with flowers and white streamers and many friends and relatives attended to witness the ceremony. Rev. George Morris officiated. The bride who was given away by her brother, Mr. Dickenson, looked charming in a wedding gown of white charmesse satin trimmed with silver lace and orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of daisies and sweetheart roses tied with silver tulle and streamers. The bride's going away suit was navy blue tulle with hat to match and she wore a gray squirrel fur. They were unattended. Harry Dunlop played Mendelssohn's and Lohengrin's wedding marches. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Teed left on a wedding trip through Nova Scotia and on their return, in two weeks, will reside at Waterloo street. The bride is an active worker in the Queen Square Methodist Church and from the of floor and teachers of the Sunday school received a dozen sterling silver coffee spoons and from the Misses Robertson Mission Circle of Queen Square church a handsome silver sandwich tray. Many other beautiful and valuable presents of cut glass and silver were received, including a mahogany piano lamp from the staff of the Imperial Company, of which the groom is a member. The groom's present to the bride was a rope of pearls. Heartily congratulations from many friends are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Teed with wishes for much happiness.
