Cottage Pillagers Are Again At Work

Summer Homes on Sandy Point Road, Fairvale and Rotherham Robbed.

Summer cottages on the Sandy Point road, at Fair Vale and Rotherham, have been broken into during the last two days, property of value carried away, furniture destroyed and efforts made to wreck the buildings. Not only have summer cottages been entered but other places occupied have not been overlooked by the pillagers.

Tuesday night a team was stolen at Rotherham, and the robbery made in the stolen rig to Fair Vale where they began their work of pillaging cottages. The gang was again operating at Fair Vale yesterday and broke into Mr. Izard's cottage where they did considerable damage, taking whatever they could find of value and carrying same away.

Forced to Run.

They made an attempt to rob an occupied house Tuesday evening. The inmates were aroused and the head of the house gave the thieves chase. In their hurry to get away they dropped a grip which was full of valuables, plunder taken from some of the cottages entered. There are three men operating in the gang, and one of them at least is armed, as he began firing a revolver when pursued Tuesday night.

Arrests Reported.

Officers were on the trail of the murderers last night when they left Fair Vale, after a second visit during the day, and started in the direction of Norton. It was reported late last night, but the report could not be confirmed, that the officers had arrested at Quispamsis three young men who answered to the description given of the men seen about the cottages plundered, and two of them are said to resemble two of the men who were engaged in the Westfield break a few weeks ago, and were given their freedom by the court.

Quarantine May Be Lifted Next Week

Small Colony on Partridge Island Well Supplied With Games and Literature.

Yesterday was an uneventful one on Partridge Island for the small colony of one hundred and fifty souls who comprise the one hundred and ten passengers of the Scandinavian and the stewards and stewardesses of the same boat in quarantine for smallpox. The one case of the disease being treated, a young man, native of Southern Russia, is practically recovered. There have been but two cases since the quarantine was established, the other patient died and was buried on the island Tuesday. His name was Hicks and he was a middle-aged farmer who was returning to the west with his wife and children, after a visit to friends in Europe.

Dr. Brown, the quarantine officer, stated last night that if no further cases developed the quarantine would be lifted the 16th or 18th of April, probably on the latter date, in view of the fact that the former fell on a Saturday.

The Recreation

Yesterday's raw weather forced the majority of those in quarantine to pass the day indoors, where they devoted their time to reading and playing games. Through the kindness of the Y. M. C. A., who collected all the back numbers of illustrated magazines, which the new agencies of the town generously contributed, the passengers were well supplied with literature. The Jewish members of the little community had their wants attended to by the local Hebrew Association who supplied a quantity of Hebrew literature. In addition to the recreation afforded by reading, there were checkers and dominoes and cards to be played, and music, too, in the shape of a gramophone and a piano to while away the hours. But all the little colony's anxiety was looking forward to more fine weather so that football and outdoor sports may be resorted to again.

The raw weather resulted in a few cases of sore throat and colds, but none of a serious class.

ENJOYABLE DANCE PARTY AT G. W. V. A.

Over Hundred Dancers Present for the Programme of Sixteen Numbers.

A very successful dance was conducted at the G. W. V. A. hall last evening under the joint auspices of the Entertainment Committee and House Committee of the Association. President W. J. Brown, Y. P. Dr. Corbett, W. A. Cooper and the Secretary of the Association had the affair in charge. The dance was under the patronage of His Worship Mayor Schofield, Mrs. Schofield and Mrs. Corbett were chaperones.

There were over a hundred dancers present who thoroughly enjoyed the programme of sixteen dances for which delightful music was provided by Mrs. Kinsman's orchestra of four pieces. The proceeds of the dance will be added to the fund being set aside for repairs to the building.

AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS

Est. one arrest was made by the police yesterday, Pascale Gallant was arrested at 2:15 yesterday afternoon for seriously riding a horse on Douglas Avenue. The station was not, despite the rather raw weather, patronized by any protectionists. This may be taken to indicate in some measure that labor conditions are picking up generally throughout the city and the number of unemployed are being reduced to a minimum.

Extra Police Sent To Nail Works Plant

Second Demonstration Occurred Last Night When Thousands Gathered.

The demonstration in front of the Maritime Nail Company's plant last night at 8 o'clock, the knocking off time, when the men quit their labors for the day and go to their homes. A crowd as large as that which gathered Tuesday afternoon was present. Among those gathered were men and women who have quit their employment with various industrial concerns of the City because of some dissatisfaction, their sympathies, and others who assume to see if "anything was going to happen." There were many kids in the crowd and they were kept busy with shouts and jeers as the workmen came out. Mr. Marvin, President of the Company was again subjected to remarks of an insulting nature when he left the plant to go to his home.

Extra Police on Duty.

The Commissioner of Public Safety and twenty uniformed policemen at the scene prepared to act if occasion required that drastic measures be adopted. Aside from the annoying "fibes" of the crowd, intended to disturb the peace of mind of the employees going to their work, nothing happened that could be construed as inciting to a riot.

Criminal Code Section.

The Commissioner of Public Safety calls attention to sections from the Criminal Code which have to do with their application, to such demonstrations as have been going on.

(Copied from Criminal Code—Page 101.)

UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLIES AND RIOTS.

87. Unlawful Assembly. — An unlawful assembly is an assembly of three or more persons who, with intent to carry out any common purpose, assemble in such a manner or so conduct themselves when assembled as to cause persons in the neighborhood of such assembly to fear, on reasonable grounds, that the persons so assembled will disturb the peace tumultuously, or will by such assembly needlessly and without reasonable occasion provoke other persons to disturb the peace tumultuously.

89. Punishment of Unlawful Assembly.—Every member of an unlawful assembly is guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to the year's imprisonment, 55-56 V. c. 23, s. 81.

It was stated last night by one in authority that a list of names of those who appeared at the demonstration would be filed with the Magistrate and proceedings started against them under provisions of the Code above given.

CITY PRESENTED WINTRY APPEARANCE

Light Fall of Snow for About Four Hours and Temperature 28 Degrees.

A moderate wind blowing from the eastward tended to make yesterday's temperature of a rawness most unpleasant to those who are dreaming of green fields and summer sports. The maximum temperature yesterday was thirty-four degrees, and the minimum twenty-eight. A light fall of snow which began at 4:30 in the afternoon and continued to fall lightly all night, covered the ground, and gave a wintry appearance to the landscape.

Free For All Fight Follows Dance

Red Liquor and Dancing Didn't Mix at Cooper's Corner Social Function.

A dancing party at Cooper's Corner near Marsh Bridge developed into a riot, and carry out affair with music by the band, early Wednesday morning. With plenty of red liquor flowing and everybody lit up, bad blood began to show itself at about 2 a.m. as the acceptance of the music and art of self defence gave a demonstration of their ability to give and take.

Badly Battered.

Some of the performers were badly "messed up," and their faces were adorned with bruises and cuts that didn't add to the attractiveness of their make-ups. A hurry-up call was sent to the police and they hurried to the scene in the patrol. When they arrived the dance had broken up and the fighters disappeared. Complaints have been lodged against those who participated in the free for all and arrests are expected to be made today.

An attractive menu card was in position at the place of each member. Emerson & Fisher, Limited

25 GERMAIN STREET

ESTABLISHED THE YEAR BEFORE CONFEDERATION

House of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Limited, Founded in 1866, Though Attaining the Dignity of Over Half a Century of Growth and Strength, Has Lost None of the Enthusiasm and Vigor of Youth.

Over half a century of activity in the business life of St. John; a rise from a small beginning to a position of commanding influence, and a business which today ranks as one of the leaders among the bigger Canadian houses, wholesale and retail. Such is the record of the firm of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Limited, which now is celebrating its fifty-fifth anniversary.

Fifty-five years ago in 1866, one year before Confederation, a modest store with a thirteen foot frontage was opened in Prince William Street. An equally modest sign in the front window informed the passing citizen that three young men, who were already known as men of experience in the dry goods business, had embarked on a venture of their own and were prepared to provide their customers with merchandise of the highest quality.

This was the inception of a business which, during the last fifty-five years, has grown to such proportions that the firm's name is a household word throughout Eastern Canada, for the three young men who on that day opened their first store were James Manchester, James F. Robertson and Joseph Allison.

So well did the firm prosper that in a short time it was decided necessary to move into more commodious quarters, and larger premises were secured in Market Square. A business in which expansion seemed to be the order of the day soon demanded even more space and a more commanding location, and so it was that a third move was made and the firm entered the principal retail business district on King street, and took over what is still the main building of their establishment.

FIRE OF 77 STOPPED NEAR BY.

The great fire of 1877, which wiped out nearly the entire city, was stopped but a few yards to the south of the M. R. A. Limited establishment, and their business was one of the few which was able to keep going, thus preserving their record of uninterrupted progress.

The demands of a continually growing business soon made more room necessary. A large building in Germain Street, connecting in the rear, was taken over and remodelled for the Carpet and Rug department and, later, the adjoining building was added for the use of one of the whole sale departments. Furniture was added to their stock, and for this a large building in the Market Square was purchased. Warehouses accommodations became a necessity, and a building on Prince William Street was taken over.

The Retail Departments also kept calling for more room and the large building two doors above the main entrance, so well-known in earlier days as housing the T. B. Barker drug business was secured and incorporated in the establishment. Very soon after the building on King Street which for many years had been occupied by C. Flood & Sons was purchased and remodelled to suit their purposes, being connected in the rear with the other buildings. Another addition was made by the construction of a very large building, fronting on Chipman Hill, which contains offices and most of the shipping and packing departments, greatly facilitating the handling of goods and giving practically an unbroken connection from Germain Street to Prince William Street.

CUSTOMERS' SEMI-ANNUAL VISITS

The record of the firm has been one of continual progress. The house has grown with the city. In the old days of sailing vessels, and when railway communication was still undeveloped, goods were slow in arriving and country customers would pay a visit to the store but twice a year. The facilities gained by the extension of railways and, later, the founding of the winter port, with the consequent development of water transportation in all directions, have benefited none more than Manchester, Robertson, Allison Limited, in the extension of their trade. It is well known that imported goods can be delivered at St. John at less cost than at any other port on the Atlantic, and this has proved an advantage.

INVESTED IN LOCAL INDUSTRIES

Other causes than these, however, have contributed to give the big mercantile house the prominent and almost unique position it occupies today in the Maritime Provinces. The men who founded it, by their sterling character, industry and sound business methods, won the confidence of the public and this has proved one of their greatest assets. This attitude has been mutual, and as the firm prospered they invested heavily in local industries, in this way helping to build up the province which has made their business. The house has always been to the front in all good works for the uplift and benefit of the community. Today the name of M. R. A. Limited, is a household word throughout the Lower Provinces and the business stands as one of the city's finest monuments to the value of clean business methods and the soundness of the principle of the square deal.

About thirty years ago, when the business was incorporated, the senior partner, James Manchester, retired from the firm, and at that time a few of the older employees were given an interest in the business.

To have arrived in 1916 at the Golden Anniversary of the founding of the business with the three original members of the firm still alive, and two of them still actively engaged in the management of its affairs, was a record most unusual and probably without parallel in the history of the mercantile life of the Dominion.

Only within the past few weeks the passing away of one of the founders, Mr. James F. Robertson, brought about the first break in the almost lifelong association of the three men who, as young clerks fifty-five years ago, starting in such a modest way, and eventually won their way to a place of such eminence in the business life of Canada.
