

500

1200

6,004

23

The Paily Tribune.

J. L. STEWART ..... EDITOR. FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 18, 1873 the damage was not serious.

ance, will hold a quarterly session at A Parliamentary Slanderer. New Glasgow, the 22ud April, Tuesday The Opposition members in Parlianext, commencing at 3 p. m. nent established the doctrine that offi-A number of miners in the Acadia of his extemporaneous manner. The im-Colliery struck for more wages on Saturcers of the House shall not write against members, and now a Government member, Hon. Jas. McDonald, proposes to day last, and yesterday forced the others prevent members of the House writing for publication scurrilous libels they dare out it for publication scurrilous libels they dare the members of the House writing for publication scurrilous libels they dare ations. At last accounts the difficulty had not been arranged nor was there much prospect of their agent and men not utter in their places. the member for Gloucester wrote a letter over his own oming to terms. initials to his paper of the most fish-

NOTES AND NEWS.

NOVA SCOTIA.

A fine robin, which has been in pos-session of Mr. Thomas Stiles, for the long period of eighteen years, died on the 27th ult. During that time it never left the cage; it has laid four eggs—two when three years old and two when five. Shed feathers every year until last, and retained its sight until several weeks be-fore it died. We are not aware of the time allotted to robins, but if our readers know of older ones we should be pleased to hear of it.—cCape Breton Times. character of a majority of the gentlemen with whom he sits in the Housegentlemen with whom he hypocritically retends to be friendly-while Mr. Dorion, who did not venture to justify the slanders, was begging that the resolution might be withdrawn on the ground that the House had no jurisdiction, Mr. Anglin was a subject for the sympathy UNITED STATES.

one man must feel for his suffering Mayor Duren, of Calais, proposes fellow man. Now that the baseness charge interest on overdue taxes. and falsity of the slanders have been It has cost New York city three and a publicly exposed, it would be better to half million dollars to do its advertising let the matter drop and take no further during the last five years, nothwithstandnotice of his ebullitions of jealousy and ing the gratuitous notices it has got from disappointment. People will believe nothing that may appear over his signa-disappointment. People will believe nothing that may appear over his signa-ture. This is one more proof of our doc-ting the penitentiary at Jefferson City, the season, and was remarkably ing the penitentiary at Jefferson City, the season data concert for the first part of the evening, the mission of the season data concert for the first part of the evening, the season data concert for the first part of the evening.

trine that journalistic duties and pub-lic life are incompatible. M, Tasse could not unveil the betrayal of trust on the part of a member and act as an officer of the House at the same time.

triumph to the Christian, and affirmconsummation in the number of souls consummation in the number of souls converted through his labors, and the souls thus saved constituting the bright-The roof of the old Catholic Chapel in est jewels that shine in his crown of re-Pictou caught fire on Thursday last, but est jewels that shine in his crown of re-joicing in the final day. This brief outline of a great discourse could not convey any proper idea of the thoughts and splendid utterances of the eloquent preacher, which, though evinc-ing careful previous preparation, were delivered with all the freshness and force of the entrumonanous manner. The Grand Division, Sons of Temper-eloquent preacher. The Rowing Championship of

America.

A few weeks ago Henry Coulter o Pittsburg, Pa., claimed that he was the A young gentleman named James Mc- recognized champion oarsman of Ameas it betrayed so hungry a desire for office, and so maddening a sense of jealousy of other members and disap-pointment at the final loss of any chance for office, that we pitied the writer too much to expose his weakness by repub-lishing his confession. Sitting silent un-der the contemptuous denunciation of his sneaking attempt to blacken the character of a majority of the gentle. Kay, from Sydney, has been missing from rica, and that Ellis Ward and John Big-she repeated one verse of the same song. sant places and pleasant people in Nova Miss Pope came to the front amid a gen-Scotia, notwithstanding the gloomy idea eral clapping of hands that sent a delicate which some people entertain of the place they have never seen, and last evening orie's Almanac" every one could see about five hundred ladies and gentlemen that her whole heart was in her song. who found their homes in that little loyal She was applauded at the end of each section of the New Dominion had an exstanza. In response to the great applause that followed the close, she sang "Tis Evening brings my Heart to Thee." A pianoforte duet by Prof. Martens and Mrs. Goddard was encored. "Tell me as follows :

Music Union Concerts. The third and last of the concerts under this society's auspices took place in the Academy of Music last evening. The audience was large and willing to give the managers all praise, yet they could not help being somewhat impatient at having to wait until nearly half-past eight before the curtain rose. The scene presented when the curtain rose was one that pleased the eye. A company of seventy were sitting quietly waiting for Colliery struck for more wages on Satur-that Dr. Irvine is truly a great, carnest, the conductor's call, to join their voices in one grand chorus. The gentlemen were in the rear and elevated (nothing > nearly all in white robes, were arranged on two seats in front, Mrs. Perley half hiding her smiling face singing of the "Festival Hymn," Mr. J. he would call the attention of the House

After this there was a little intermission man who deliberately lied for the purpose to allow the conductor to hide the sing-ers who were to take part in the chorus the High Court of Parliament appear to of "Ye Winged Winds," in which Miss be a mere den of thieves, was unfit to be Miss Nelson also sang "Thou art so Near (Great Cheering.) Unless the writer of and yet so Far," and was encored, when the libel made full apology and explanablush to her cheek, and as she sang "Mar- language against another member-he uttered in the House instead of written

> Mr. McDonald then read from a letter in the St. John Freeman, signed "T. W. A.," in reference to the voting down of Huntington's Want-of-Confidence motion, my Heart" by Mrs. Perley again brought The test vote has at length been taken, my Heart" by Mrs. Perley again brought down the house, and she sang a song all the country know how many men are about "Sweetheart," which seemed to touch many in the audience. "The Anvil for the Government sacrifice honor, character honesty, reputation and all Chorus" and "God Save the Queen," were character, honesty, reputation and

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Special Telegram to the Tribune A Member of the House Denounced as a Foul, Low, Unmanly, Base and Cowardly Slanderer - - Timothy Grows Red in the Face.

OTTAWA, April 18.

Mr. Anglin presented a petition praying that the New Brunswick School Act may be disallowed.

The Pacific Railway Committee asked for the passage of a bill enabling them to examine witnesses under oath.

Mr. McDonald, of Pictou, spoke to a question of privilege. He alluded to the removal of an officer of the House for having written against members, and said admitted into the society of gentlemen. tion he would take the Parliamentary course of procedure authorized by precedent when a member uses unjustifiable personal to any), while the ladies,

