At this moment the bell of a church tower tolled the hour of midnight, and before the reverberations had died away a marriage ceremony had commenced above the graye in the cemetery. The service was short, and the scene most singular and impressive. A few moments later the four returned to the carriage and were driven back to the place from whence they started. The driver of the vehicle could give no further information other than that one of the gentlemen was a minister of the gospel, as was revealed from the cut of his garments.
