continue to be conducted on the same principles and rendered it so generally popular, and secured for it such support from almost every part of these Provinces. It has now been in successful operation upwards of ten years. The arrangements were made to accomplish the important object for which it was created, and were such as obtained for it from its very commencement a high position in the public estimation. And those upon whom the management of its affairs has devolved, have been encouraged and stimulated by continued efforts to render it, in all its departments, ever more efficient. Every year in its history has consequently been marked by valuable additions to its educational facilities, and by more or less general improvements throughout the Establishment.
It is especially invited to it as an Institution where the advantages of practical training may be obtained in safety and comfort, and under favorable circumstances.
