

Wolfville is on the main route of travel between Halifax and Yarmouth, and is easily accessible from all parts of the Maritime Provinces.

The Building.

The building erected in 1879 was insufficiently supplied with rooms suitable for the purposes of the school, and it also became inadequate to accommodate the increasing number of students. The Board of Governors, therefore, in 1892 decided to erect, at the additional cost of twenty-five thousand dollars, a fine and commodious structure, which should provide for the growing needs of the Institution. The new, or main building was dedicated in September, 1893. It is tastefully adjoined to the original structure and, as a whole, the building in architectural style completeness and adaptability, is second to no other educational edifice in the Dominion.

Besides the attractively furnished dormitories sufficient to accommodate about one hundred students, it contains a commodious Assembly Hall for morning prayers and public entertainments by the school, large and pleasant Class Rooms, a Laboratory, Studio, Gymnasium, Reception Room, Library, Hospital, a large and cheerful Dining Room, eighteen Music Rooms, several Bath Rooms.

Pains have been taken to procure the best sanitary conditions in respect of heating, ventilation and drainage. The ample grounds surrounding the building have been pleasantly laid out, and afford delightful space for recreation. Upon a broad, protected terrace in the rear of the building, are Two Lawn Tennis Courts and spacious Croquet and Ball grounds.

In short, everything has been done to adapt the building and its surroundings to the educational work for which it has been designed, and to render it an attractive, healthful and beautiful school home.
