AN ULTERIOR MOTIVE.

On the occasion of the visit of Premier Dunsinuir to Atlin the people of that district prepared a petition setting forth the wants of the amp. The first and chief item of the document which was handed to the premier read:

"Freight rates.—The attention of the government is called to the fact that the existing rates on the W. P. & Y. Ry. Co.'s from Skagway to Caribou and inland points are in excess of those existing between Halifax and Vancouver. That the gross receipts, from the company's statements, amounted to nearly 75 per cent of the cost of construction, during the first eighteen months' operations, and the enormous net profit earned is good justification for the charge of exorbitance. At present the cost of living is so high that men of limited means are unable to spend any length of time, either investigating new districts or opening up old ones."

The pitiable plea which Atlin makes to the government of British Columbia serves, in the strongest manner imaginable, to support the position which the Nugget has taken on the freight rate question. Atlin has been given more unjust treatment if anything than Dawson has received, simply for the reason that in respect to that district there is absolutely no competition in the transportation business. The screw has been applied just as hard in Dawson as circumstances would permit, but in the care of Atlin, there has been nothing to stay the hand of the oppressor. The White Pass has enjoyed a clear field, and with medieval brutality has wrung the blood from its victim to the last drop. In establishing its rates for Dawson the railroad octopus has been forced by competition to stay within certain limits, but its treatment of Atlin indicates very plainly what would occur if Dawson were forced to rely upon the railroad company alone for the transportation of its freight. Nevertheless there are newspapers in Dawson which at every opportunity seek to uphold the railroad in its treatment of the miners of this territory.

The Sun and News, both have shown their hands unmistakably. They have arrayed themselves on the side of the enemy, and have aided and abetted him in every way within their power. What object they hope to attain in thus working against the interests of the community upon which they depend for support is not apparent. That the motive is an ulterior one we cannot help believing.

EXAMPLES BROUGHT HOME.

Examples of the effects of the big strikes now prevailing on the outside are coming home to Dawson merchants. Goods which were ordered by mail before the opening of navigation last spring are only now beginning to arrive and fears are entertained that in no few cases, orders cannot be filled at all. Delivery of freight on the coast from Eastern Canada has been greatly hindered owing to the strike among the C. P. R. operators and in a number of instances which might be cited several months have been consumed in the delivery of goods from

TO EDUCATE YOUNG PRINCES

Scheme for Forming Cadet Corps in British-India.

Simla, Aug. 30.—The assent of the king-emperor has been received to a scheme which was submitted to his majesty's government by the viceroy with the unanimous support of his council for the provision of military employment and rank for a limited number of cadets of princely or aristocratic families in India. A large field is already provided for the military employment of native officers of good birth or position, of whom there are nearly 3000 in the commissioned ranks of the native army, but there has been a dearth of a corresponding openings for the sons of Indian princes, nobles and gentlemen, who are every day receiving a superior education, but for whom opportunities of active public service when they reach years of manhood are restricted.

SOLDIERS ATEGEBERT

Arrived None the Worse for Their Dawson Visit.

Eugene Leddy, special agent of the traffic department of the White Pass route, who has had in charge the transportation of the troops for Fort Egbert and the commissary supplies for the posts along the lower river, returned to the city this morning at 4 o'clock on the Victorian.

"We arrived at Eagle Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock," said he, "with the boys in blue but little the worse for the day and evening before. I find that not only those who were here Friday under Lieutenant Fitzpatrick but the signal corps who preceded them a week or so ago as well as all others at the post who have ever been in Dawson, speak in the highest possible terms of the unbounded hospitality of the N. W. M. P. and Canadian officials. They cannot apparently say too much for the treatment accorded them whenever they happened to be in British territory. Lieutenant Fitzpatrick told me that he had been in the army transport service two years and never had he seen the troops or he himself been so royally entertained. They are very anxious for an opportunity to reciprocate and if any of the police should ever go to Fort Egbert there will be nothing in the entire country too good for them."

"There is another large shipment of quartermaster and commissary supplies which I am daily expecting and which will end the season's shipments. The consignment yet to come amounts to 110 tons, 25 of which is iron piping for the water service at Fort Egbert. It will be forwarded by one of the N. C. boats as soon as it arrives and I shall accompany the goods to the lowest station they are intended for Fort Gibbon. As there will probably be no way of returning again to Dawson, I shall have to go outside via St. Michael." Mr. Leddy will winter at his headquarters in Seattle.

ARE YOU LUCKY?

It will not be many weeks before the icy grip of winter has throttled the rushing tide of the Yukon, leaving that noble stream cold and silent, and over whose frozen bosom the weary traveler will "mush on" in shuddering loneliness. Last spring we offered a complete outfit for the lucky guesser who came nearest to the time when the heavy hand of winter was removed and the icy fetters were broken. Now who can tell when the river will freeze? To the one who comes nearest the exact time of the river's freezing in front of Dawson we will give as fine a winter outfit as the heart of man can desire, including:

- A Fine Coat, valued at $60.00
 - A Beaver Cap, valued at 20.00
 - A Pair of Dolge Shoes, valued at 7.00
 - A Pair of Fur Lined Gloves or Mitts, valued at 3.00
 - A Suit of Heavy Underwear, valued at 10.00
- Total $100.00

You Can Send In Your Guess Any Time Before the 17th of October.

HIGH WATER IN KLONDIKE

Is Proving Disastrous to Wood and Lumber Men.

The heavy rains of the past week have caused a rise in the waters of the Klondike river and is creating considerable havoc for the wood and lumber men who are sending logs down the river to the booms at the mouth. The boom has not been broken, but the rise of the water has caused a large gap in one end through which a large number of logs have passed working their way down the Yukon river. A continual string of logs have been floating down in small boats have been at work harpooning as many as they could get hold of. Most of the logs coming down today belong to the Dawson Electric Light & Power Co.

No Lives Were Lost.
St. Louis, Aug. 29.—The steamer City of Clifton, owned by the St. Louis and Tennessee Packet Company, sank at Seventy-six landing, about 15 miles above Grand Tower, Ill. She was bound for St. Louis and her cargo consisted mostly of lumber. Her passengers, who were transferred, arrived here safely on the steamer Chester.

The boat sank in nine feet of water and will be saved. The sinking was caused by a break, the extent of which could not be learned. Returning passengers say there were more than 80 travellers on board when the steamer struck a hidden snag in midstream and went down within three minutes. No lives were lost and no one was injured. The accident, however, threw the passengers into a panic and several women fainted. The passengers all crowded to the upper deck, and four hours later were taken off by the steamer City of Chester. The Clifton was built about a year ago and cost $50,000.

There Are Others.
Two thousand Smiths of Peapack registered at their annual reunion Wednesday at the old home where Zeke Smith lived, in Peapack, a century ago. The Smiths who met Wednesday came from all parts of the United States, the Northern New York members being particularly well represented. All claim kinship with John Schmidt, the Hollander, who came to this country more than 100 years ago and who founded the family of Peapack Smiths.—Bx.
