

A Siege. The matrons of the Edison Orphanage at Lowell, Mass., U.S.A., wrote they had a siege of whooping-cough in their institution. They said that every case was promptly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene. Its value in coughs and colds was so great they always kept it ready for use. You know how it's used, don't you? This heated by a vaporizer and you inhale it. Write us for a book that tells all about it.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by all druggists, or sent express and duty prepaid upon receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene, costs complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene, 50 cents. BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETING

The Baptist quarterly meeting for Hantsport with the Baptist brethren in Scotch Village, last week, the sessions beginning Monday evening and continuing until Wednesday and were well attended. The meetings began with a roll call and thank offering. Dr. Gates of Windsor, gave a lecture in the evening.

Reports from the churches represented showed substantial progress. Tuesday afternoon Rev. G. R. White of Hantsport and Dr. Gates gave very interesting papers, the subject of the former reverend gentleman's paper being, Discipleship. During the evening a mass missionary meeting was held. Addresses were given by Mrs. Nalder, Rev. G. R. White and Dr. Gates.

The exercises for Wednesday were particularly interesting. Sunday school work was taken up and a Bible lesson was discussed. The Missionary Aid Society conducted the afternoon meeting, over which Mrs. Nalder presided. Rev. Mr. Higgins preached an evangelistic sermon in the evening.

Thanks were extended to the Scotch Village friends for the entertainment provided, which was suitably responded to by Rev. Mr. Crandall, pastor of that district.

Rev. Mr. White and Miss Grace Burgess represented the Hantsport Baptist Church.

BIRNAM WOOD TRAGEDY

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 5.—The examination into the tragedy of November 18th, when Captain C. M. Morris, master of the British bark Birnam Wood, shot and killed the steward, Charles Jeffries, and three days later jumped overboard and was drowned, has ended. The affair took place as described by the mate on the craft's arrival at Mobile. Suspicion was entertained that there had been foul play, resulting in the murder of the captain and steward, but this has been set at rest by the following letter in Captain Morris's handwriting:

"Bark Birnam Wood, "Nov. 20, 1901. "To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have shot and killed the steward, Charles Jeffries, and I shall pay the penalty at my own hand. Let no man censure me too badly, but pray God that he may never be placed Minard's Liniment Cures Colds etc.

in the same position. What I have done was no part of my nature. I have done no man wilful wrong. I write this to clear the officers and crew of any part in what has happened, not to clear myself in any way, or to ask sympathy from the world. I know what I have done and the sin I have committed.

"C. M. MORRIS."

SMALL POX.—We are informed there is a case of Small-pox in Windsor, of a mild type. A little girl arrived recently from British Columbia via Bocton and St. John. After being in Windsor a short time and mingling freely with other boys and girls on the streets, she came on with an affection of the skin which on Friday last was pronounced Small-pox. The case was isolated in the quarantine hospital as soon as possible, and it is hoped the case was discovered in time to prevent contagion. In the meantime everybody in Windsor is getting vaccinated.

Thanksgiving, our holiday, passed away very quietly. The visitors were few. Miss Bessie Harvie came from Brooklyn to her home and Messrs. James Shand Jr. and Parker were here from Halifax. Mr. Shand was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvie and Mr. Parker visited his uncle, Mr. John Parker.

Owing to the recent illness of our pastor, Mr. Irish of Walton, we had no Methodist service here on Sunday morning. In the afternoon a good Sunday School was held. This school under the superintendency of Mr. J. E. Fish, needs to be complimented on its rapid progress since its organization last June. Recently the White Ribbon Army was organized and many of our young folk have pledged themselves against the use of strong drink and profanity.

Miss Lena Harvie, who has been in Brooklyn for the last week visiting Mrs. Frank Chambers, returned home on Thursday.

Kick a dog and he bites you. He bites you and you kick him. The more you kick the more he bites and the more he bites the more you kick. Each makes the other worse.

A thin body makes thin blood. Thin blood makes a thin body. Each makes the other worse. If there is going to be a change the help must come from outside.

Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh.

A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine.
