

Lecturer in French Lang. and Lit., in McGill Univ., a position he still retains. It may here be stated that his thesis on proceeding to his M.A. degree was on the subject of "French-Can. Literature." He had previously won first prize, offered by the Quebec branch of the Dom. Alliance to all theol. students in the Province for an essay on "The use of Alcoholic Drinks in their Relation to Religion and Morals." He m. 1887, Rebecca, eld. dau. of the Rev. C. Chiniqy, D.D.—65 Hutchison St., Montreal.

MORINE, Hon. Alfred Bishop, statesman, is the s. of Capt. Alfred Morine, and was b. at Port Medway, N.S., Mch. 31, 1857. Ed. there, he graduated LL.B. at Dalhousie Univ., Halifax, 1892, and was called to the bar, 1894. In the same year he was admitted a solr. and barrister in Nfd. He has since practised in St. John's. He commenced his newspaper career as the correspondent at Ottawa for the Halifax Herald, and St. John Sun. Later, he was ed. of the New Era (Halifax), and the Spectator (Annapolis). Proceeding to Nfd., he was ed. of the St. John's Mercury, 1883-85, and of the Herald, 1889-91. He ran, unsuccessfully, for the Legislature in Bonavista, as an Ind. candidate, Nov., 1885, but was returned, June, 1886, and has held the seat up to this time, his majority in 1893 being larger than that obtained by any candidate in any previous parliamentary election. In 1890 he was chosen one of the 3 people's delegates who were sent to Eng. to present the views of the colony on the French Treaties question, and, in 1891, he was one of 5 delegates deputed to represent the Legislature before the Imp. Parlt. and Govt. on the same question. On this latter occasion he prepared the address read by the delegates at the bar of the Ho. of Lords. He also prepared, with others, a pamphlet on the French Treaties question. Prior to 1888 he supported Sir W. Whiteway, but left him because his party passed a resolution against Confederation. In Sept., 1894, he entered Mr. Goodridge's Cabinet as Colonial Secy., and in Nov., 1897, the Winter Cabinet as Recr. Genl. In 1892 he ran at a by-election in Queen's, N.S., for the Dom. Ho. of Commons, retaining at the same time his seat in the Nfd. Assembly, but was defeated by a small majority. He is a strong believer in the future of a confederated and united Can., and supports moderate incidental protection and union with the Mother Country. He m. Jan., 1884, Miss Alice Melisse Mason, St. John's, Nfd.—St. John's, Nfd.

"A willing and persistent worker in everything he takes hold of, and has already laid the sure groundwork of abundant success."
—Newfoundland Men.

MORISON, Hon. Donald, statesman, is the s. of the late Wm. D. Morison, who emigrated from the island of Lewes to Nfd., 1845. B. at St. John's, Nfd., Apl. 22, 1857, he was ed. at the Genl. Prot. Acad., St. John's, studied law with Sir Jas. Winter, Q.C., and was called to the bar, 1881. He practised his profession in partnership with Sir Jas. Winter until the latter's elevation to the bench, and was created a Q.C. He has been Grand Master of the Orange Assn. for several yrs., and since 1892, has been a mem. of the City Council of St. John's. He has sat for Bonavista, in the Nfd. Assembly, since 1883, and on his re-election, 1893, received the largest vote ever given to any candidate in the colony. He was a del. to Can. on the French Shore question in 1890, and a del. to the Orange Triennial Council, London, Eng., 1894. Mr. M. entered the Cabinet as Atty.-Genl., Apl., 1894, and held office till 1895. He is a strong advocate of Confederation with Can., believing it to be the ultimate destiny of Nfd. He m. 1883, Miss Cassie E. Trappnell, Dungleoe, Donegal, Irel.—St. John's, Nfd.; City Club, do.

MORRICE, David, merchant and manufacturer, was b. in St. Martin, Perthshire, Scot., Aug. 11, 1829.