Graduation and then?

Right now you are probably thinking about the past several years and what you have to look forward to after graduation.

While you're at it, consider the personal growth and satisfaction you could experience at Procter & Gamble—a leader in the consumer products industry. We regard training and development as our most basic responsibility because we promote strictly from within Procter & Gamble. We know of no way to train people to become managers other than to have them learn by doing.

Economics, history psychology, business—our managers include diverse backgrounds. More important than your specific field of study are such basics as intelligence, leadership ability, innovativeness, and a solid track record of achievement.

Representatives from our Company will be on campus to conduct interviews in April. All resumes should be forwarded to the Canada Employment Centre on campus, no later than 10:30 a.m., March 28, 1985.

As a first step, we invite you to visit your placement office and obtain a copy of our literature. Additional information is also available in the library file in the placement office.
