informed that the assigner was identical with James Anderson who purchased lots 11 & 12. and I am sure you will admit that I had no right to assume that it was the same person, particularly as there were in the time of my Agency two of that name on the Reservation.

The latter purchase by Mr Anderson must therefore be considered a separate one and being only the part of a lot the Patent fee of £2. is required before a reference for its issue will be sanctioned. Had I been informed that it was the same person I would most certainly have included all the land in one reference & thereby have saved the Depart. and Mr Anderson the payment of the extra £2.0.0. I have no doubt that you were kept in ignorance of that fact as well as myself.
