

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The Chairman shall have power to decide questions of order, subject to an appeal. Any member may appeal to the meeting from the decision of the Chair, and the Chairman shall thereupon put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?" A vote of two-thirds of the members present voting being necessary to sustain such appeal.

2. No motion shall be put from the Chair unless submitted in writing, with the names of the mover and seconder, except motion to adjourn.

3. No member shall address the meeting unless a motion is before the Chair, except when general business is being transacted.

4. When a member intends to speak or submit a motion, he shall rise in his place, and addressing the Chair, confine himself to subject under discussion.

5. Should more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall at once and without appeal decide who is entitled to the floor.

6. On a point of order being raised while a
