

6. The Imperial Klonvokation shall consist of all Imperial Officers and one representative from each Klanton (Klan or Local) and one additional representative from each Klanton for the major portion of each one hundred (100) members above the first one hundred (100). To have representation the Klan must be in good standing, that is, have all Imperial dues paid up to the first day of April preceeding the date set for the meeting of the Klonvokation and whose Charter has not been revoked or suspended. Where a Klan is entitled to more than one representative and less than the full representation is present the senior member, as designated by the Klan, shall carry voting proxy for the absentees. Any Klansman in good standing and not a delegate may be given a courtesy card entitling the holder to a seat outside the boundaries of the regular representative seats and having no voting privileges or right to participate in any proceedings. This card is obtainable from Imperial Headquarters.

7. The active officers of the Imperial Klonvokation in convention assembled shall be a President and a Secretary, the former being Imperial Klaliff and the latter the Imperial Kligrapp. Other Imperial Officers may act as chairman of committees or constitute committees. All acts of the Klonvokation shall become effective within one hour after their passage unless vetoed by the Imperial Wizard within that time, in which event the Klonvokation may pass the act over the veto of the Imperial Wizard by a two-thirds vote of the said Klonvokation. This constitution or any article, section or clause thereof may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Klonvokation and such amendment shall be ratified by the Imperial Wizard, provided, however, that all proposed
