At the regular meeting of Branch No 11, C. M. B. A., Dundas, Ontario, Tuesday evening, July 22nd, 1891, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Moved by Brother W. Lunn and seconded by Brother Jas. Hourigan, that the Supreme Council of the C. M. B. A. are deserving of the condemnation of all members of the C. M. B. A. in Canada for the manner in which they (the Supreme Council) treated the petition of the Grand Council of Canada for a separate beneficiary at the meetings held at Cleveland and Niagara Falls, and also for illegally tampering with the constitution of the C. M. B. A. on both occasions for the sole purpose of coercing the Grand Council of Canada and its branches; but, thanks to Canadian officials, they (the Supreme Council) were forced to acknowledge their wrong, thereby forfeiting the confidence of the Grand Council of Canada and the branches under its jurisdiction. Be it therefore

A. that on and after thirty days from date of notice given them we sever our connection with them, taking total separation from the United States, and that the Grand Council of Canada hold all moneys levied the branches under its jurisdiction and pay all claims for death assessments and other purposes for the maintainence of the C. following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Moved by Chancellor M. J. Doran, seconded by Brother Jas, K. Weekes, that in the opinion of the members of this branch it is desirable in the interests of the association in Canada that the Canadian Grand Council should have a separate beneficiary as soon as possible, and that in the event of the Supreme Council refusing to grant the separate beneficiary so frequently petitioned for and wrongfully refused under the constitution, it is the duty of the officers of the Grand Council to take immediate steps to establish a separate association of the members in good standing in Canada.

That in the opinion of this branch it is the bounden duty of the officers of the Grand Council to keep intact and secure for the sole benefit of the Canadian members the reserve fund now in Canada.

That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Grand President, the CATHOLIC RECORD, the Irish Canadian and Montreal True Witness.

The visiting branches of the E.

B. A. from various points in Ontario began to arrive by boats and trains from east and west between 9 and 10 o'clock. A procession was formed and marched through the principal streets and then to Dun-durn Park. The procession was large, and the officers and members in their handsome regalia looked splendid. The Grand officers occupied hacks. Among those in the hacks were: Vicar-General Rooney, Grand Chaplain; Rev. Father Brady, Rev. Father Meneghan, Mr. Chas Burns, Wm. Lane, Rev. J. Lereu, Peterborough; P. J. Crotty, Toronto; J. Hayes Toronto; M. C. O'Neil, Wm. Jamieson James Doyle and members of th local committee. The branches of the E. B. A. represented in the procession were: Toronto No.'s 2, 7, 8, 11 and 12, with No. 1 Emerald's guards, drill corps and band of I. B. N. and fife and drum band; Branch No. 23 from London, Branch No. 25 from Ingersoll, with Forester's band; Dundas Branch No. 5, Oakville Branch No. 17, Peterborough Branch, Elora Branch No. 20, Sarsfield Branch No. 1, Hamilton Citizens Band of Hamilton, and others. The procession, on reaching Dundurn, disbanded, and the visitors were escorted to the hotels where they partook of dinner.

During the afternoon a baseball match took place between the Beavers, of Parkdale, and the Walker House team, resulting in a victory for the

Those who were not interested in the baseball match flocked to the portion of the grounds over near the castle, where the games were in progress. These were conducted with a great deal of spirit, and the competitions were very keen.

A pleasing feature of the demonsta tion was the voting for the most popular Emerald on the ground. There were only two contestants, Mr. Jerry McDonald, of London, Grand Marshal of the order, and Mr. J. J. Nightingale, of Toronto. The polls closed about 6 o'clock, and the return ing-officer announced the result as follows: McDonald, 754; Nightingale Mr. McDonald was presented 623. with the cane. Both the candidate addressed their constituents appropriately. Mr. McDonald said that it would be a great pleasure to him to carry the cane, and he felt flattered by the honor which had been conferred upon him. Mr. Nightingale said although he had not won the cane, he considered it had got into good hands. Although not personally acquainted with his opponent he was gratified to ee the Grand Marshal stand so well with the brethren.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the evening programme was communed in the baseball ground. A large number of people gathered in front of the grand stand to listen to the songs. The following is the prize list:

Comie song—1st Patrick Tyne, 2nd F. E. Hamburg, 3rd E. Donohue. Sentimental song—1st F. Dyer, 2nd Patrick Tyne, 3rd F. C. Hamburg.

Irish jig numbers, which were announced on the programme, did not come off. The evening's prooceedings was under the able directions of Mr.

The Western Fair.

The Western Fair.

The time is fast approaching when Canada's great Live Stock, Agricultural and Art Exhibition will again be held.

It should be most gratifying to the Directors to notice that great appreciation which is yearly increasing in their show and to encourage them to still greater efforts to keep their Exhibition as far ahead of all other shows as they have done in former years.

This year the prospects were never better. The Secretary has informed us that the entries so far are just double what they were one year ago, thus proving that a lively interest has already been manifested.

The Main Building, which was of such interest last year, is going to be better than ever, and visitors can view almost anything and everything in the way of beauty and in process of manufacture.

and everything in the way of beauty and in process of manufacture.

Through the persevering efforts of the directors a grand display of fine art is assured. Pictures valued at £1000 sterling will be on exhibition, and should in themselves be a sufficient attraction to draw a great number of visitors.

be a sufficient attraction to draw a great number of visitors.

The Grand Stand about the horse ring has been extended several hundred feet to accommodate the vast throng who yearly view the attractions from this point of vantage.

The attractions arranged for are the best that money can procure, so that anyone who has not already made up his mind to go to the Fair should settle the point at once and not miss, perhaps, the greatest chance of his life.

Mr. Thos. A. Browne, the Secretary, will be glad to furnish prize lists and all information.

IRISH NEWS.

MORE PARNELLITE SECEDERS.

A telegram has been received in Dublin from Belfast stating that Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien have persuaded four of the Irish members of the House of Commons, who, since the disruption in the Irish Parliamentary party followed the leadership of Mr. Parnell, to secede from the Parnellite section and to cast their fortunes with the McCarthy ites, the section that is opposed to Mr. Parnell as a leader of the Irish cause.

WARMLY RECEIVED. Dublin, Aug. 9. - Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien had a splendid reception at Mallow to-day. Mr. Dillon, in a speech, invited Mr. Parnell to consent to the formation of a committee consisting of Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien and any two gentlemen Mr. Parnell may select to allocate a portion of the Paris fund to the relief and protection of evicted tenants until it is possible to appeal to the country for a fresh fund, McCarthy and Sexon to deliberate on the future leadership of the party resulted in an agreement that Mr. Dillon should be formally invested with the leadership when Parliment re-assembled; meanwhile Mr. McCarthy will be the nominal chief, though Mr. Dillon will be the virtual leader.

DEATH OF FATHER HOBAN.

The death of this young and talented priest, a native of this city, which took place at St. Joseph's College, Somerset, Ohio, has caused widespread grief amongst his very many friends. sad event took place on July 23rd and the funeral was held on the 24th. His brother priests of the Dominican Order rendered the occasion a most touching and solemn one. He was a favorite amongst them, and their sor row at his loss was most sincere. Hoban, mother of the deceased priest, still resides in this city, as also a sister, Mrs. Dewan. Father Hoban had been ordained seventeen years. In his youth he was a pupil of Bayly's gram-mar school and St. Peter's Separate school in London.

A Clever Hit.

Mr. Chas. R. Devlin, M. P., made the following reference, in a speech re cently delivered in the House of Com mons, to the apostles of civil and religious liberty:

The hon, member for one of the divis-ions of York, who, I believe, is grand sovereign of an order to which he be longs, was speaking in the city of Foronto on the 12th of July, or the day afterwards—at all events, it was the celebration of the 12th. Now, this gentleman is a member of the Canalian House of Commons, this gentle man knows the responsibility which attaches to his utterances. This gentle man, speaking in the city of Toronto on this date, only a week ago, said: "He hoped that never would a Catho lic occupy the position of mayor of the Tyne, 3rd F. C. Hamburg.

At the request of Rev. Father Brady the Games Committee brought the day's proceedings to a close about 9.30 o'clock; therefore the recitations and Lish jig numbers, which were another than the detay in the position of the city of Toronto." I saw the remarks quoted in a French paper of Montreal. I was afraid that, perhaps, he had been misreported, so I took up a newspaper of the city of Toronto, the Mail, and I found there exactly the same remarks It was only the other evening that dinner was given in the basement of this House. I was not invited to it, and cannot tell all that transpired there but I believe that another important member of the order to which the hon member from West York (Mr. Wallace belongs was being dined by that hon gentleman. I believe, furthermore, he is grand sovereign of the universe and came all the way from Ballykillbeg, and that this gentleman was treated right royally downstairs. But were they loyal in doing so? I believe it was the same gentleman who a short time ago, on an important occasion in reland, exclaimed: "We will kick the Queen's crown into the Boyne. No doubt they were celebrating that. Bad as I am, I do not entertain any such sentiments, and I would feel more disposed to kick that gentleman who would undertake to kick the Queen's crown into the Boyne : and Canadians despise such sentiments.

A Notable Conversion.

We notice amongst recent events of moment, says the National Press hitherto uncommunicated to the press the remarkable conversion from Anglican communion of George Skef fington Ussher, Esq., eldest surviving son of the late Lieut-Colonel John Ussher, formerly of H. M. 66th, and subsequently of H. M. 50th and 95th Regiments, who was solemnly baptized and received into the Holy Catholic Church by the Rev. Father Benvenutus Guy, O. S. F. C., in the Franciscan Capuchin Church of St. Mary of Angels, Dublin, on Sunday, 19th April last. The return of this gentleman to the true fold is all the mor remarkable as he is the lineal descend ant of the famous Archbishop Ussher, of Armagh, formerly Protestant Primate of all Ireland, who was so distinguished for profound learning and historical research. Mr. Ussher's conversion is eminently the result of long, silent years of study and reflection, fostered by God's holy grace and pro-

There are two convert priests in London who seem to have taken a leaf out of Monsignor Capel's book, and who are making themselves prominent in bringing outsiders into the Catholic fold. They are the Rev. Luke Riving ton and the Rev. R. B. Godolphin Osborne. Both are splendid speakers Father Rivington is the more learned and argumentive in style; Father Osborne the more vivacious, persuasive and polished, as becomes a grandson of a Duke of Leeds. On the Sundays of May, Father Rivington was the morning preacher at the new church of St. James, Manchester Square, and Father Osborne attracted enormous crowds to the Oratory, South Kensing on, in the evenings.

LONDON CHEESE MARKET.

Saturday, August 8.— Out of some 9,435 boxes of cheese offered to-day, representing 613,275 lbs., or in money value $55,194, only about 1,590 boxes were sold, or about the one-seventh part of what was offered. The buyers and sellers would not meet, and there was a deadlock. The whole Board could have been bought at $9c, but the bayers, only in the sales we have mentioned (9c and 9.1-16), bid below this, even to $1c. The factoryment appear to be as well posted on the cheese question as the buyers, and farmers are confident that 9c a pound is the proper value of their cheese. There is no doubt that the cheese situation will improve, as there is every indication of an increased demand in England owing to a short make in Holland and Benmark. Out of 9,35 boxes only 1,359 were sold at 9 cents a pound, and 559 boxes at 91-15 cents.
