

Provincial Wesleyan

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1886.

Editorial.

We need offer no apology for surrendering all our available space this week, as in the last, to matter of such pre-eminent interest as is happily within our reach just now, while the great movements of Methodism in Britain and America are brought so prominently before the public eye.

In a few days the session of our own Colonial Conference, which must be regarded by all our readers with peculiar and with prayerful interest, will be opened at St. John. We trust that some kindly hand will be employed to furnish us with a report of the proceedings of that Body.

The China Mission.

"CHINA AND ITS MISSIONS" may hereafter be the title, and certainly be the subject, of one of the grandest volumes in the history of Christianity. Even now, a detailed account of the Protestant Missions to the Chinese Empire would be most welcome and valuable, whether published in a book by itself, or as might perhaps more easily and usefully be done, in a series of articles appearing in the pages of some widely-circulated journal.

The last divine seal given to a Mission, as of an individual Minister, is fruitless; but in the instance of the former it may need to be waited for, as the husbandman waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the former and the latter time together.

Obituary Notice.

Died, at West Brook, Cumberland, Co., on the 5th of March 1856, in the 34th year of her age, ELIZABETH TAYLOR, the beloved wife of John C. Taylor, leaving a husband and six children to mourn the loss of one who had all the lovely characteristics which give strength, elegance and beauty to the character of a mother.

Correspondence.

Sir,—In the Christian Messenger of May 14th there appears a caricature in the "Sim Slick" style of a course of lectures on the subject of Christian Baptism, delivered by myself during the past winter in the Wesleyan Chapel at Lawrencetown.

Church itself, who has conducted labours for so many departments of the spiritual Kingdom, and hidden them to reap in this long reserved and whitening field, the wheat, and most densely planted with immortal natures, of all upon which the eye of the Lord of the harvest can compassionately rest.

He is full of emotion, and never seems to be getting off his feet, as Americans say, but always sitting off, and, seemingly, it seems almost as if he were sitting off of himself, and momentarily carries him up as in a whirlwind of fire.

notwithstanding this separation the Canada Conference has always been most favourably impressed with the dignity, piety, and catholicity of the mother Church in this country, and holds it to be the highest esteem. It was not necessary to enlarge upon the statements contained in the address just read; they are the true views entertained by the Methodist Church in British America of the M. E. Church in this country.
