

erect and maintain a Boom extending from the Boom mentioned in the first Section of this Act, down the said river Nashwaak, near the centre thereof, to Butternut Island, and from thence down the said river, and near the centre thereof, near to the said Mills, for the purpose of protecting and securing the timber, logs and lumber for the use of the said Mills.

3. The said Alexander Gibson may by himself, his servants and agents, erect, construct, renew and repair from time to time all such piers or abutments as may be necessary to secure and maintain the said Booms or either of them; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize or empower the said Alexander Gibson, his agents or servants, to enter upon the lands of any person without the consent of the owner or owners thereof first obtained in writing.

4. It shall be the duty of the said Alexander Gibson at all times while the Boom mentioned in the first Section of this Act is kept and maintained across the said river, and whenever any timber, logs or lumber coming down the said river is stopped by such Boom, to cause the said timber, logs or lumber to be examined and sorted each day (except Sundays), and to select therefrom without any unreasonable delay all the timber, logs or lumber belonging to the said Alexander Gibson, and place the same within the Boom mentioned in the second Section of this Act, or otherwise to remove the same, and to allow all the remainder of such timber, logs or lumber to float down on the western side of said river Nashwaak to and over the sluice at the Mill dam of the said Alexander Gibson, in the manner now accustomed.

5. If any person shall sustain any damage by the neglect or unreasonable delay of the said Alexander Gibson, his servants or agents, in carrying out the directions contained in the fourth Section of this Act, such person may maintain an action on the case against the said Alexander Gibson in the Supreme Court.

6. If any person shall wilfully destroy or injure the said Booms or either of them, or any of the Piers thereof, or works connected therewith, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty dollars, to be recovered with costs of prosecution before any Justice of the Peace of the County of York, in the manner directed by the Revised
