

So it was carried in the affirmative.

The fourth, fifth, and sixth of the said Resolutions being again read, and the question being separately put thereon,

The Council divided upon each :

YEAS.	NAYS.
The Honble. the Chief Justice.	Messrs. Cuthbert.
Messrs. Pothier.	Neilson.
De Léry.	Quesnel.
Moffatt.
McGill.
De Rocheblave.
Gerrard.
Christie.
Walker.
Molson.
Harwood.
Hale of Sherbrooke.

So they were carried in the affirmative.

On motion of the Honble. Mr. Moffatt, seconded by the Honble. Mr. McGill,

RESOLVED, That an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Governor General, submitting to His Excellency the foregoing Resolutions.

Then.

On motion of the Honble. Mr. McGill, seconded by the Honble. Mr. Moffatt,

The Council adjourned.