RECENT DEATHS.

ABRAHAM BEAMISH.

Abraham Beamish died yesterday at his residence, No 86 Marsh road, the age of 48 years, after a brief illness. He leaves a sorrowing wife and three sons, all of whom were present at the funeral.

Abraham Beamish was a general favorite, upright and honest in all his business transactions. He was generous, yet unostentatious. Many a home has been made happy without knowing the source or giver. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2 30 p. m. from the late residence to the Catholic church, thence to the new Catholic cemetery.

JAMES R. McKEE.

Many in this city and throughout the entire province were deeply grieved yesterday to learn of the death of James R. McKee, which took place at the P. E. Island Hospital yesterday.

Mr. McKee entered the hospital last week suffering from gangrene and was forced to have his leg amputated, but he was unable to recover and died. He was a native of St. John, N. B., and was a member of the Order of Railroad Conductors. At one time he was lieutenant of the old hook and ladder company and in his early life was a yardmaster and coachman. He was a member of the first lodge which was organized in the city of St. John, N. B., and was a member of the Order of Railroad Conductors. At one time he was lieutenant of the old hook and ladder company and in his early life was a yardmaster and coachman. He was a member of the first lodge which was organized in the city of St. John, N. B., and was a member of the Order of Railroad Conductors.

Mr. McKee's forefathers were men of large stature and strong physique, which Mr. McKee inherited. He married Charlotte Tennant, who died only last February. The sons are James T. in St. John, N. B.; Harry C. B. in Charlottetown; and William A. in Moncton and Wallace F. T. in Winnipeg. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at three-thirty from the Methodist church. The honorary pull-bearers will be six of the oldest grand past masters of the Oddfellows.
