Legislative Council

Yesterday was the third day that the Labrador Fishery Bill was under discussion. The work on the Bill got ahead yesterday as far Sect. 7. A lengthy debate marked the consideration of the Bill and Hon. John Harvey spoke for some time, objecting strongly to the placing of the responsibility of making fish prices on the Supreme Tribunal. Mr. Harvey favored the substituting of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries as a fit party, but in amendment was defeated by 11 to 4.

At the present rate of progress the Bill may take some weeks before final settlement is effected, as a decided effort is always made by Messrs Harvey, Robinson, Tamplin, Bishop and McGrath to amend every section of the measure, tending the destruction of the Bill altogether.

Stolen Treasure Discovered in Barn

Reviewing Memories of a Pathetic Episode Wherein a Young Life Was Snuffed Out.

Last week Patrick Coughlan of the Topsail Road found $100.00 in a corner of his barn which he was repairing, and immediately remembered that Phil Brady who was a prisoner and who died of consumption at the General Hospital had been accused of taking the money when at large from the Penitentiary. It will be remembered that Brady who had deserted his vessel, was sent to the Penitentiary, and had nearly finished his term there when he made his escape. Brady was eight days at large, and during that time managed to conceal himself in Pat Coughlan's barn, where he was discovered later by the police. The unfortunate man on being re-arrested was charged with having stolen from $100.00 from Coughlan, and received an imposed sentence of two years longer in the jail.

A short time after, Brady contracted a quick consumption and died. Brady is dead and forgotten, and the money is found, it is due to his memory—who was a stranger in a strange land—to acknowledge that after all he might not have been guilty, but was like many another, the victim of circumstances which are so often the beneficial influences of lives most innocent.
