

PLANK WEAKENED IN THE SIXTH

St. Louis Defeated Philadelphia by a Score of 4-3.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1.—St. Louis won its fourth game from the Athletics yesterday when Plank weakened in the sixth, allowing three of the seven hits secured off him, which with McInnis' error, allowed three men to score. Strunk's batting and the fielding of Collins and Austin featured.

St. Louis . . . 1000000000—4 7 0
Philadelphia . . . 00000000—3 2 1

DEROIT BEAT WASHINGTON.

It was "Boehling Day" but Tigers Touched Him for Eleven Hits.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Detroit batted Boehling hard yesterday afternoon, winning handily 4 to 1, mainly on account of the firework of Pitcher Hall, who allowed Washington but four hits, and was brilliantly supported. More than a thousand fans from Richmond, Va., accompanied by a brass band, came up for the purpose of cheering their fellow townsman, young Boehling. Score: Detroit . . . 00003000—4 11 0
Washington . . . 00000000—1 4 1

MADE IT TWO STRAIGHT.

New York Defeated Chicago by a Score of 3 to 2.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—New York made it two straight over Chicago, winning the second game of the series by a score of 3 to 2. Caldwell, starting his first game, for weeks for New York, pitched excellent ball and won his initial victory of the season, holding the visitors to four hits. The only run scored by Chicago resulted from a wild pitch by Hartzell in the 5th. Score: Chicago . . . 00001000—1 4 0
New York . . . 00003000—3 2 1

TWO VINS FOR CLEVELAND.

Edison Was Beaten Twice in Double-Header.

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Heavy hitting won both games of a double-header for Cleveland yesterday from Boston, the scores being 5 to 2 for the first and 4 to 2 for the second. Bediet was knocked out of the box by the Naps in the 8th of the first and Cleveland won its victory right there.

Moseley and Foster were driven to cover in the first innings of the second contest, when the Naps made five hits and four runs. Hall then pitched a shut out game for eight innings.

First Game . . . R. H. E.
Cleveland . . . 00000140—5 7 3
Boston . . . 00011000—2 7 1
Batteries—Falkenberg, Gregg and Carriek; Bediet, Hall and Thomas.
Second Game . . . R. H. E.
Cleveland . . . 40000000—4 7 1
Boston . . . 00000000—2 12 2

DOOIN'S OUTFIT WON

Philadelphia Defeated Cincinnati by a Score of 3 to 4.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—The Phillies took kindly to the offerings of Brown, while Seaton kept the locals hits scattered, and Philadelphia won the second game of the series by 9 to 4. Seaton had one bad inning, the eighth, when the bases were full and one run had been forced across with none out. Rixey came to the rescue, and extinguished the local batsmen, only one run resulting. Score by innings: Philadelphia . . . 13000040—9
Cincinnati . . . 010100020—4

Artist Never Undressed

LONDON, Aug. 2.—An inquest at Paddington on an eccentric artist, Alfred Joseph Roff, 65, who was discovered dead in his room at Bravington place, revealed evidence that he had not undressed for several years. He spent his time lying on the bed painting pictures, all of which had been sold. He had completed a picture for which he had a commission the last day of his life.

Hertford Won't Marry

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The marriage of Hertford, who as the Earl of Yarmouth married Alice Thaw, contrives to keep continually in the public eye. After setting all London talking over his engagement to the very rich elderly widow, Mrs. Moss, he repudiates interest just as the excitement is waning by announcing that the marriage will not take place.

HISTORY IS RE-ENACTED.

BRISTOL, Eng., Aug. 1.—History was re-enacted again here when Julius Caesar, a sailor, was stabbed by John Brutus, a weaver. Caesar was ambitious, and that caused the trouble. Julius was ambitious to have a drink in a public house and have Brutus pay for it. Brutus refused and the affray ensued. The couple rushed into the street when Brutus whipped out a knife and cut the sailor about the right arm. The assailant was arrested.

Sporting Comment

BY FRANK LANCE

16-o sounds like a William Jennings Bryan war cry, only the one isn't there.

Joe Lill only passed six men in two innings yesterday, and Peterboro secured six runs. Well, that was the game right there.

That Berlin club is surely playing good ball. Winning a double-header from St. Thomas is no easy feat, and it shows that "Manager" White is making good on his job.

Pitcher Clermont seems to have lost some of his effectiveness, as well as ambition since the early part of the season. If the boy held his head up he might develop into a good pitcher.

Cleveland, by putting the kibosh on Boston twice yesterday, did something to keep the American League race interesting. If the Athletics started to do any slumping, which is hardly possible, there might be an upset in the American race.

Lamond took Kane's place in left field yesterday and had eight put outs to his credit. The records fail to point out how many other hits Lammy chased in left field which would not have been gathered in behind Clermont with a net.

Knotty Lee says he will change the face of the baseball map by arranging two international class C leagues instead of having one truly Canadian institution. For the very reason that the league is at present Canadian in character. Knotty will not succeed in his venture. It's only a dream.

Yesterday at the Hamilton race meet there was the smallest attendance of the meeting. Several reasons might be adduced for the slump, one being the oppressive heat. The card of races, however, was not up to the standard; several events bringing out only a mediocre lot of horses. The public has also a growing suspicion that crooked work is frequently pulled off, and the judges are having a busy time clearing up. The latest stroke of business in this regard was the ruling off of Dandelos, a Chicago Greek, whose plunging has been the sensation of racing for some time. Dandelos has been in the habit of making the bookies wipe the prices off their slate by betting $7,000 or over to a race. Then he started making book himself, and on Wednesday last laid big odds against Plate Glass, the best horse in the race. Plate Glass lost, and the bookie is doing some explaining. This is one of the races which the public, as well as the judges can see through, but there is a lot of stuff which even escapes the notice of the trained and efficient officials in the judges' stand. It's the same.

Fact.
"Sin always finds the wrong-door out."
"You're mistaken. It generally finds him in and ready to listen."

COMPARE THEM.

With the Irish Guards Band and Patrick Conway's band both giving three concerts daily at the Canadian National Exhibition, lovers of band music will be able to compare the best English and American bands. The Irish Guards are undoubtedly the most popular of the Guards' bands and that means the most popular of European military bands, while Conway's band has succeeded, Gilmore's band, the popular favorite in the republic to the south of us.

They have devised an ingenious albeit somewhat misanthropic method of ducking Langford out on the coast. He is not to be allowed to fight there because he is a prize fighter "with an international reputation." The idea evidently being that it wouldn't be fair to the boys who have stuck around home. Speaking of fighters has any one taken steps to bar Bombardier Wells? If not, why not? Wells has more of a decided international reputation than any one we know. He has been knocked out in nearly every city of importance in the known world and once in Belgium.

A skate weighing 221 lbs., the largest ever taken with rod and line, was caught by Mr. T. Tucker, of the British Sea Anglers' Society, while fishing from a boat at Ballycotton, Ireland.

RITCHIE WILLING TO MEET WOLGAST.

Champion Says the Conditions of the Challenge Suit Him to a Nicety.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—Willie Ritchie is there with the "come back" thing. The lightweight champion hands Wolgast an answer well calculated to cut the hair about little Adolph's temples.

Saturday Wolgast posted 1,000 with Jim Jeffries, the same to go as a forfeit on a $25,000 side bet to Ritchie. One-half this amount was to be bet that Wolgast would whip the title holder in a 20-round battle, the other half to go as a straight wager that he would knock-out, stop or force Ritchie to quit inside the limit. "We call Wolgast's proposition," said Ritchie last night. "We accept Wolgast's invitation just as it says, the only stipulation we make is that half the amount $12,500, be posted on the day the articles are signed, the remainder to go up ten days before the contest."

"I will be tickled half to death to take Ad. on again. I have been passing his case up because I feared that he was no longer a drawing card. But with a bet of this kind I can't afford to let him slip out of my hands."

Ritchie has been enjoying a brief vacation at the seashore. He will drive his car back to San Francisco next week, leaving here Wednesday morning.

"I am in the open market; no promoter has a string of any kind on me," said the champion. "I promised Mr. Coffroth that I would talk business with him on August 4, and I will keep my word, but also I will be willing to listen to propositions from promoters from all over the country. I want to fight on either September 8 or 9. Wolgast can have either of these holiday days."

Another Use.

"This parcel post is a great thing." "Yes, it is going to make it mighty handy for my daughter to send home clothes this summer for her mother to wash."—Louisville Courier Journal.

MANUEL WILL BE WED ON PORTUGAL SOIL

Sack of Dirt Reaches London in Preparation for Marriage.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—A sack of earth has reached London which was brought from Lisbon for ex-King Manuel to stand on when he is married to Princess Augusta Victoria of Hohenzollern, at Sigmaringen, September 4.

The most prized wedding present which Manuel has received is a leaden ring, made and sent him by the political prisoners in Portugal. The craftsmen who worked on the ring, including jewelers, obtained the medal lead and pewter utensils. The ring is engraved with the royal arms. Before it was smuggled out of the prison it was kissed in turn by all the imprisoned Royalists.
