Harvest Home Services Conducted in Congregational Church.

Paris, Sept. 24.—From Our Own Correspondent.—The funeral took place this afternoon at the Methodist Cemetery St. George, of Elizabeth Simpson, beloved wife of Charles Galloway, Capron street, Rev. Galloway, officiating. She was 71 years old. In 1880 she was married to Charles Galloway and after her marriage lived at Harrisburg for five years, later moving to Lynden, where they remained for twenty-five years, and for the past seven years she has been a resident of this town. Mrs. Galloway was a faithful member of the Methodist church and the W. C. T. U. in which she took a very active interest. Besides her husband, she leaves a sister Miss Sarah Simpson, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.
On Thursday evening the young boys of the Methodist church were given a banquet in their schoolroom. After ample justice had been done to all the good things provided for the feast, Mr. Veitch, who acted as chairman brought the happy gathering to order when short addresses were given by several of the men present. The organist, Mr. Hill gave several vocal and piano selections. The banquet was given to outline the winter work, and to create a deeper interest among the boys. CAPT. CORNELIUS G.W.V.A. SECRETARY
Receives Appointment in Reforming Club-house.
The G.W.V.A., a general meeting held in their quarters in the Y. M. C. A., elected Capt. J. R. Cornelius to the position of permanent secretary of the organization, succeeding C. S. Yankie, who recently resigned. The selection of Captain Cornelius was in part a recognition of his able and energetic services in organizing the forces for the establishment of a returned soldier's clubhouse in this city. He has worked indefatigably in this regard and his committee, the G.W.V.A., have shown their appreciation of his efforts.
Capt. Cornelius is at present lecturing in the Southern States, and news of his appointment has been wired to him, together with the request that he return home.
Further plans in connection with the huge Christmas tree for the wives and children of soldiers overseas were discussed, and the venture promises to be most successful. The local organization have decided to assist and co-operate with the members of the Paris branch of the Association in the celebration of the annual harvest home service on Fair Day.
