(From our own Correspondent) Simcoe, Feb. 4.—The remains o the late George Pratt, who died in Detroit on Thursday after a week's confinement in the hospital there, were brought to Simcoe Saturday and interred at Oakwood cemetery. He came to Canada with his son, George Jr., about five years ago, with the intention of bringing his family over later. When war broke out his son enlisted and has since been killed. Two other sons are in service overseas. He was a splendid tradesman -a knight of the trowel—a good singer, and socially a good mixer. He was alone in Detroit, and his only relatives here were the two children and wife of his brother, Pte. John Pratt,

Mrs. Pratt was in too critical condition to be advised of the mat-ter, but the business men of the town, on the initiative of Mr. Arthur West took the matter in hand, wired liability and requested that the Cooper Brothers were up before
