

THE Reliance Loan & Savings Co. OF ONTARIO.

Successors to the Chatham Loan and Savings Co.

Assets over $2,000,000.00.

3 1/2 Per Cent per annum interest allowed on deposits. On sums of $1.00 and upwards.

4 Per Cent interest per annum allowed on deposit receipts issued for twelve months or longer.

4 1/2 Per Cent. paid on Debitures.

S. F. GARDINER,
BRANCH MANAGER

The Planet.

Business Office 53
Editorial Room 102

S. STEPHENSON - Proprietor.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

In the year 1856 an election for the Legislative Council took place between Col. Rankin, John Dougall and Col. Prince. At that time Col. Prince was a member of the Legislative Assembly, but was flouting for more honors, and was successful in getting a nomination.

A meeting between the three candidates was held in the Eberts building, and Col. Rankin was the first called upon to address the audience. He was a fluent speaker and his language was moderate and in good taste, and, to judge from the applause, the majority of those present were supporting him.

When Col. Prince arose he commenced his address somewhat as follows: "Gentlemen, the position of one of my opponents, Col. Rankin, in this election reminds me very much of one of the Aesop fables, which is doubtless familiar to the majority of you, there the dog was seen carrying a bone across the stream on a log, and, seeing his shadow in the water, he dropped the bone he was carrying to snatch what he supposed to be a larger one." The audience saw the point and a perceptible change was soon manifested in the feelings of the electors, and the result of that campaign was that Col. Prince was elected by five hundred and fifty of a majority.

A. McCoig has given evidence of the same thirst for additional honors as the late Col. Rankin, and will probably realize the truth of the application of the fable long before the election. Men of far greater calibre than the present nominee of the Liberal party in West Kent have received practical illustrations by the electors that they quickly recognize cases of swelled head and have been given a cooling application in the shape of a crushing defeat.

The Bells of England.

The metal tongue of the big bell rings out many changes to our modern ears. It speaks of disaster and death, of rejoicing and devotion. In England it often tells of old times and quaint customs. Mr. Ditchfield, in a book on old England, gives some of the traditions handed down through the "tintinnabulation of the bells."

In some parts of the country the bell which tolls the old year out, is called the "Old Lad's Passing Bell." In western England the bells peal merrily on "Oak Apple Day," to celebrate the escape of King Charles at Boscombe. Another bell, rung at the beginning of Lent, is known as "Pancake Bell," because, in old time phrase, it "summons people away from their pancakes to confession and fasting."

A lively peal of bells is often rung at the end of the Sunday morning service, and is called "Pudding Bell." Perhaps its purpose is to announce to the stay at home that service is over and that the pudding may come out of the oven.

Every night at five minutes past 9 "Great Tom," the great bell of Christ Church College at Oxford, booms out his ponderous note 101 times. This particular number was chosen in accordance with the number of students at the foundation of the college.

Military Handy Men.

The order of the French Minister of War that the sharpshooters of the garrison towns on the coast shall devote their time to the extermination of the seals, which threaten the fisheries of the French coast, is novel, but merely a repetition of history. Some years ago the province of Luxembourg was infested with wolves. The alarmed inhabitants appealed to the Minister of Agriculture, who in turn called upon the Minister of War, with the result that several regiments were ordered to the province, and the pests were exterminated in short order. It is not many years ago that German soldiers were ordered to east Belgium to assist the peasants in combating a plague of rats, and millions were killed before the troops were withdrawn.

Swine Notes.

An abundance of clover, corn and hogs is a good thing to have on the farm.

It should be true of every breeding animal in the herd that it is large around the heart.

The evil condition, not the abundance of the bedding, engenders disease.

It is a mistake to breed a sow too young. She should be at least eight months old, and twelve is better—Farm Progress.

Many men think nothing matters except financial matters.

Many men make themselves disagreeable over the smallest of troubles.

DISTRICT DOINGS THAMESVILLE

Feb. 5.—Skating on the pit is good. Mrs. Picard is spending the day in Chatham.

George Fraser has returned from Detroit.

The Misses Hall come from London this week to begin special services in the Methodist church.

Mr. Gardner will occupy the house of Mr. Edsell on Victoria street.

Mrs. Everitt is slowly recovering from her serious illness.

Wm. Brown is confined to the house through illness.

The Misses Ripley returned to Chatham to-day.

Oddfellows Lodge meets Thursday night.

Rev. Mr. Rae, who has been assisting Rev. Mr. Orton in special services in the Baptist church this week, left for his home to-day.

A very interesting meeting of the Art Club was held at the home of Mrs. Fraser, who had charge of the meeting on the Provinces to Confederation. Misses Armstrong and Evans gave papers on Ontario and Quebec. Miss McCulloch spoke on Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, while Mrs. Courtis took up British Columbia, Manitoba and Prince Edward Island. A communication was read asking this club to become a member of a Canadian Historical Club.

The Reading Circle meets this week at the home of Rev. Mr. Aycarst, and will be the last meeting until after the special services.

The special services to have been held in the R. C. church have been postponed.

The funeral of Samuel Randall was held from Mr. Thomas Clinie's residence on Friday. Interment took place at Sylvan.

Miss Rose Causgrove attended the executive meeting of the East Kent Teachers' Association in Ridgeway on Saturday. The committee will prepare a program for the spring convention.

Mrs. Charles Watts and Miss Kathryn Stewart spent yesterday in Port Hope.

Miss Doll Causgrove spent Sunday at home.

The curlers have returned from Grand Rapids.

The young bachelors have decided to give another assembly about the 21st of February.

The extended popularity of

Diamond Dyes

Induces Speculators to Introduce Weak and Worthless Imitations

DIAMOND DYES, true home helpers and money-savers for mothers and wives, are dear to every woman's heart.

Recently, speculators have gone into the package dye trade with the view of gaining a share of the immense and ever-increasing trade held by the manufacturers of the DIAMOND DYES, but all such efforts will, as in the past, result in failures.

The crude and worthless dyes brought out in opposition to the DIAMOND DYES, can never become popular, for the simple reason that they have not one good quality to boast of. The merchants of Canada who have been induced to buy these adulterated package dyes now find them dead and worthless stock.

The progressive and busy druggists and dealers of Canada sell only the DIAMOND DYES, which have an established reputation of over twenty-five years. The modern merchant has not the time or inclination to encourage the sale of worthless and deceptive goods.

If our Canadian women desire full, brilliant and fast colors, they should at all times ask for the DIAMOND DYES, the only guaranteed package dyes in the world. When buying package dyes, see that the words DIAMOND PACKAGE DYES are on each packet handed out by your dealer. Wells & Richardson Company, Limited, Montreal, P. Q., will send you on any address their new Dye Book, Card of Dyed Samples, and new book in verse entitled "The Longjohns' Trip to the Klondike." This little book is interesting thousands.

CHARING CROSS.

A. Ritchie, of concession 10, has recovered from his recent illness.

J. Bailey is laid up with la grippe.

Quite a number of our young bachelors took in the annual ball held in Chatham on Tuesday evening.

A surprise party which was to have been held at F. Woods on Friday evening last, was a greater surprise to the parties getting it up, as when they arrived no one was home, but the party were not to be beaten out of their evening's enjoyment, for they went to the home of Alex. Boyce and had a fine time.

Mr. Harrington, of Chatham, spent a very pleasant evening here last week attending the I. O. F. installation.

We are glad to report Mrs. E. Wiley rapidly improving after an operation performed a few weeks ago.

Wm. Meloche has returned home after spending a few days in the Maple City.

The regular California weather is quite welcome among many of the farmers here. Quite a number of them are plowing at present.

Mrs. E. B. West has returned home after spending a week with friends in Guelph.

Robert Wilson intends erecting a fine residence on the town line in the spring.

The M. G. R. intend laying a double track in the spring. They are meeting with some difficulty in buying land from some of the farmers, as they are only offering about $25 or $30 for the land they want.

THE STAGE

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At The Grand—
His Highness the Bey—Feb. 8.
Fatal Wedding, matinee and night—Feb. 10.
Uncle Tom's Cabin—Feb. 15.
Little Johnny Jones—Feb. 24.
Sommers Stock Co., week—Feb. 26.

(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

Next Thursday evening, February 8th, the attraction at the Grand will be, "His Highness the Bey," which will be a run of five months in the La Salle Theatre and is one of the greatest successes that have been produced in Chicago in ten years.

The comedy was only removed temporarily to admit of the fulfillment of previous contracts, to all appearances, from a box office standpoint, it could have enjoyed prosperity at the La Salle for another season.

The action tells of the tribulations of Louis Wurtzelheimer, a band leader from Kankakee, who, by odd series of mischances, becomes both a Turkish boy and the leader of a band of desperate insurgents who are seeking the life of the new bey in order to overthrow the government. Louis, who originally lands in Turkey in answer to an advertisement for a band leader, is followed by a jealous wife who becomes involved with the hours of the harem bequeathed the new bey by his fleeing predecessor.

An American war correspondent and foreign ambassadors complicate the affair by making love to the numerous wives of Wurtzelheimer, and these afford comedy situations galore.

Not to be overlooked, for they contribute much, are the "Broilers," as the dancing girls are known. Without them the production would be incomplete. These agile dancers execute the most difficult steps with perfect ease. The movement is, "Remember the date—Feb. 8th, Seats now on sale at Frisco's."

"THE FATAL WEDDING," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under the management of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction at the Grand for Saturday, matinee and night. It is a play which fills a long felt want, and while it is both dramatic and comic, it is truly and wholly wholesome. The scenic effects are very vivid and realistic, and show a number of reproductions of well-known New York scenes, among them being the Criminal Court while in session, and the interior of the famous Grace Church while a wedding ceremony is in progress.

"The Fatal Wedding," a play full of heart interest, by Theodore Kremer, and under