Our Neighbours

PIONEER.

Arrangements have been entered into, it is stated, by J. B. Daggett, of Centreville, to establish a concrete-making plant at the "horseback" on the farm of W. J. Emery. We are informed that Mr. Daggett has secured the contract for supplying the concrete to build all the bridges and culverts on the Valley railroad from Woodstock to Centreville. There is an abundance of sand in this horseback and if all the plans materialize, we shall have an industry that will be of great benefit to this place.

The many friends of Miss Kate McAnley will regret to learn that there has not been the improvement in her health that was anticipated. We all hope that she may yet recover from her illness and be able to resume her work as organist in the Methodist church.

Our enterprising newspaper representative is busily engaged in booming the "Observer" and other papers. "Voting contests" are getting him excited these days and the fellow that beats him as a pedestrian will have to start early in the morning.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silke, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

RIVER BANK.

Mrs. Lizzie Holmes is visiting at Mrs. H. C. Hunter's.

H. M. Hunter and Follic Chase have gone up Tobique on the drive.

William Brooker attended his nephew, James Barker's funeral at Lower Brighton.

We have no service on Sunday of any kind now. Guess we are all good enough so don't require any.

Mrs. James Bell was calling at the "Hub" and Mrs. C. J. Smalley last night.

Mrs. B. E. Tompkins spent Sunday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Tompkins.

W. T. Hunter and Hughie took tea at Rupert Long's Sunday night.

Several of the children of this place attended Lydia Tompkins birthday party Saturday at Stickney.

All reported a good time.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey, of Newburg Junction, N. B., writes, "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Tablets and finds them very effective and doing her lots of good." If you have any troubles with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

May Magazine.

Canadian Home Journal has just come. It seems to grow larger and fresher and more attractive every month. The short stories and serials are very good and "The Schooner Girl," a tale of the Labrador coast, gives us an idea of interesting people and customs. Several pages are devoted to flowers, telling what, how, and when to plant. There are words and music of a love song for the vocalist and pianist, fancy stitches for those who enjoy embroidery, menus for the housekeepers, recipes for the cooks, health and complexion talks for the wholesome women, stories for the juniors and tashions for everybody.

Fredericton Mail's Opinion on Rigby's Turn-Down.

Premier Flemming is a great promoter but a poor performer. Prior to recent session of the Legislature he travelled up and down the St. John River accepting banquets and promising to do great things to encourage our own people to remain in the province. How has he kept his promise? A number of the residents of Hartland, including a bright young man named A. R. Rigby, endeavored to get a bill through the Legislature which would have meant cheaper light and power to the people of Premier Flemming's town. Did they get any assistance from the premier? Not on your life. While he did not openly oppose the bill he threw cold water upon it and it was bowled out by the committee of the House when an encouraging word from him would have seen it enacted into law.
