THE CENTURY MAGAZINE.

WITH the November, 1887, issue, the Century Magazine commences its thirty-fifth volume with a regular circulation of 100,000. The Century has been published since 1852, and its history during the past thirty-five years is a record of the growth of the American press.

Lincoln in the War, the writers now enter on the more important part of their narrative, viz., the early years of the War and President Lincoln's part therein.

Supplementary War Papers, following the "battle series" by distinguished generals, with descriptive illustrations of army life, including from Libby Prison, narratives of personal adventures, etc. General Sherman will write on "The Grand Strategy of the War."

Kennan on Siberia, Except the life of Lincoln and the War Articles, no more important series has ever been undertaken by the Century than this of Mr. Kennan's. With the previous preparation of the Century in 1886, the study in Russia and Siberia, the author undertakes a journey of 20,000 miles for the special investigation here required. An introduction from the Russian Minister at the American Embassy will be the principal feature, and the author, who has been acquainted with some of the most important states of the world, will be able to give a full and accurate account of the country.

A Novel by Eggleston, with illustrations by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fiction will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fiction will follow by Cable and Stockton.

McClellan's Features, will comprise several illustrated articles on Ireland, by Charles De Kay; papers touching the field of the English school of literature, illustrated by E. L. Wilson; and a series of papers on the English school of literature, illustrated by E. L. Wilson.

The Editor, Mary Mapes Dodge, and other popular books for young folks, and for grown-up folks, too, has a remarkable facility for writing and illustrating children's books. Her skillful leadership, Mr. St. Nicholas brings to thousands of children, and to the whole world, a new and delightful world.

St. Nicholas in England, It is not alone in America that St. Nicholas has made his great success. The London Times says, "It is above anything else a production in the same line." The Standard says, "There is no magazine that so successfully competes with it."

The Coming Year of St. Nicholas, The Century year begins with the number for November, 1887, and the publication of the Century year begins with the number for November, 1887, and the publication of the Century year begins with the number for November, 1887.

Why not try St. Nicholas this year for the young people in the house? Begin with the November number. Send us $3.00, or subscribe through booksellers and newsdealers. The Century Co. 33 East 17th St., New York.

Littell's Living Age, IN 1887 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-fifth year, having published since its first issue in 1842, a total of 1,740 numbers.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty-two numbers of sixty-four pages each, or more than three and a quarter thousand.

double column octavo pages of reading matter, every page is a page of matter, with contents, owing to the weekly issue, and with a complete weekly index.

THE LIVING AGE, forming four large volumes, contains, from the great and generally acknowledged master of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the completeness with which it embraces what is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the current of intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

Opinions, "We thought that it was impossible to improve upon this great publication, yet it does seem to grow better each year. We regard it as the most valuable publication of the time."—Christianity, New York.

Such a publication enhances our appreciation of the value of the Century in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that can be found in it. It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Christian, New York.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

In returning our most sincere and hearty thanks to the people of Miramichi and surrounding Country for their ever-increasing kindness in the past 13 years, we would now respectfully notify them of our determination to close out all our splendid new and immense Stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods before the 1st of January next, 1888, when we will take stock and confine ourselves to a greater extent to our wholesale and supply trade, which Newcastle, as a Railroad and distributing centre, warrants us in doing. We will therefore clear off all broken parcels and odd lengths of Merchandise at much under cost price, and now draw particular attention to the general sweeping reduction in prices which must permeate the whole Stock during these two months.

The Goods are now being marked down, every article below wholesale prices, and many things at less than half price.

The following quotations for STAPLE GOODS cannot fail to attract and convince thoughtful and observant buyers, 1st, that this is the time and place to purchase; 2nd, that this is a rare opportunity in a life time to supply yourselves, your Household and Friends with Sound, Durable Goods at less than prime cost; 3rd, that as these Goods cannot last long at such prices, it is most desirable on the part of store keepers, traders, and the shopping public generally to call at once and get first choice; 4th, that this Stock must be cleared out before first of the New Year; 5th, that the following CUT PRICES for sterling, seasonable goods DRIVE COMPETITION entirely out of the question; 6th, that no matter how much Consternation and wonder may be felt among Competitors at our low prices the people can rely on getting everything guaranteed in length, width, quality and at the prices given here. Let them come and try—get samples free—See—Compare and be convinced.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS. No wonder People ask how Sutherland & Creaghan can quote such prices and give such value. The because we get CASH DISCOUNTS and Close Terms. We know that when the manufacturer was money they will sell for cash rather than borrow at interest. All goods pass from the factories into our Store. Our goods pay no middle profits, in proof of this observe the following prices.
