We notice that Mr Whelan complains in the Examiner, that he has not had justice done to him in the Report of his speeches. In looking over the debate, we find that Mr. Whelan's speeches have occupied more space than any other three Members'. We can tell Mr Whelan, a daily Newspaper could attempt to give a full Report of the speeches in the House of Assembly.

DR. CHALMERS' WORKS. DR. CHALMERS VORKS.

("To commend these works is superfluous; they have not with universal approbation from the British press and public. That the periodical press, representing so great a variety of religious and political opinion, should have so generally noticed them, and that too with high commendation, is a circumstance accordingly rare, if not altogether unparalelled. They have charms for the merely literary man, and they will obtain a hearing for reangelical truth in quarters from which it would otherwise be excluded." — Ritto's Journal.
