RE-APPEARANCE OF THE CHOLE-RA ON THE MISSISSPPI RIVER.

St. Louis, Nov. 15-P. M. The steamer Constitution, which arrived here this morning, from New Orleans, had upwards of thirty cases of cholera on board seventeen of which proved fatal before the steamer touched the landing.

The steamer James Hewe't has also arri ved, with a number of cases of cholera on board. She has been prohibited from land-ing by the public authorities, and is now lymg on the opposite side of the river. The arrival of vessels to-day with the cholera on board, has produced considerable excitement in the city, and every precaution is being made to keep it without its limits. The mayor has also ordered all boats arriving from below, to lie out in the stream, until they can be examined by the proper offi-country does not exceed from 2,000 to 2,500 and the report of guns having been taken from the Hudson Bay Company's establishment, is we believe, incorrect.

The origin of this affair is entirely tracoable to this scandalous manner in which the late Government, during the region of Sir Charles Metcalfe, mismanzed the mineral lands of Lake Superior. To please Ci. John Prince, and other of their needy supporters—without any inquiry as to their rights to the lands—without any have been contented arms of the dying Christian were upraised, for extent or value—without any attempt to settle with the Inlian claiman's—without set the ran specific letters of occasion, the enemy of souls for the patterns. The origin of their extent or value—without any attempt to settle with the Inlian claiman's—without set the ran specific letterns of occasion, the enemy of souls for the lands—and settle with the Inlian claiman's—without set the ran specific letterns of occasion, the enemy of souls for the lands—and settle with the calculate of the regions were divided of the plant of mining! The lands might have

On enquiring into the position of the matter, it was found that their prodecessors, the late Conservative Government, had investigated these very Indian claims, and in a long report to the Head of the Government, had given their opinion that they rested on no just foundation, and ought not to be entertained. The present Administration were in a measure fettered by this decision but being pressed by the agents of the Claimants and feeling that there was some force in their arguments to inquire into the justice of the claims and suggest some amicable mode of settlement. suggest some amicable mode of settlement. The Commissioners have been engaged in this work for some time, and have suggested terms of compromise—acceptable, it would appear, to a portion of the Indians, but not to others. The emeute at the Sault St. Marie is no doubt got up by the leaders to coerce a settlement; and, though leaders to coerce a settlement; and, though every care should, and undoubtedly will be taken, to maintain the peace, we do not anticipate any serious disturbances.

We observe an article in yesterday's Patriot on this subject, which is calculated to have a most injurious tendency on the settlement of this affair. This is a question which all parties should desire to see quickly and amicably settled, and out of which political capital cannot fairly be forced. Whether the charge of "prograstination and nefarious conduct," preferred by the Patriot sgainst the present Government in the matter, could not with a thousand times more justice be applied to the Patriot's friends, the explanation we have now given will abundantly show. taken, to maintain the peace, we do not annow given will abundant!y show.

SEIZURE OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

We are sony to learn that the Steamer Chief Justice Robinson is still detained by the United States Authorities. The cause of her seizure forbids the thought of her one detention. An American gentleman nurchases for his own use six gallons of Scotch whiskey, and some wine and brandy in bottles, at one of the care of one of the officers of the Chief Justice; the latter of gives into the hands of one of the Custom-house officers a correct statement of this part of his cargo, affecting no concealment, and entertaining no fear. This surely was a case not calling for the severe measures adopted. It might have been necessary to forbid the landing of these goods, and to remind the parties of the existence of laws prohibiting the introduction of these articles in such small quantities; but the seizure of A Splendid Assortment of Shawls.
