NOTICE!

Those who have not made application for telephone service within the past month or two should do so as soon as possible.

This applies also to present telephone subscribers who want additional telephone installed.

It is expected that the new telephone system will be in operation within nine months, meanwhile the Company will continue to operate the present telephone system which it has taken over from the Anglo and Western Union Telegraph Companies.

Applications made now will assist the Company materially in laying out its cables and lines to the best advantage and much less time will be lost in supplying applicants with telephone service.

Address and Presentation.

To Inspector General Hutchings, December 24th, 1919.

Chas. H. Hutchings, Esq., K.C., O.B.E., Inspector-General, Constabulary.

Dear Sir,—On behalf of the Non-Commissioned Officers and men of the Constabulary and Fire Department, we desire on this Christmas Eve to respectfully tender to you an expression of our loyalty and good-will. Since your assumption of the position of Inspector General, you have shown a deep and practical interest in the welfare of the men under your command, and they have found in you a leader, who not only commands their respect but also their gratitude for your untiring efforts on their behalf. While insisting upon strict and regular attention to duty, you have yet considered in every way the comforts of the men, affording relief where duties pressed too heavily, and relaxing where such were merely formal. Knowing as we do your great desire to make the departments efficient in every respect, we wish to assure you of our sincere and hearty co-operation and sympathy realizing that in doing so the credit will not alone redound to ourselves, but to the colony as well. And while assuring you of our loyalty, and giving you promise of strict obedience in every matter of duty, we desire to acknowledge the invariable courtesy which you have shown us collectively and individually in any approaches we have made. Such courtesy and kindly interest will produce the fruit of increased efficiency and willing service.

As a token of our respect and good will at this kindly and festive season of Christmas, we desire your acceptance of the accompanying silver service, at the same time wishing you, Mrs. Hutchings and family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Yours respectfully,

A. S. Newhook, District Inspector;
S. Noseworthy, Head Constable;
G. Oliphant, Head Constable; J. Byrne, Head Constable; M. Savage, Sergeant; P. J. O'Neill, Sergeant; Jas. Mackay, Sergeant; W. Long, Sergeant; E. Furlong, Actg. Sergt.; G. Bennett, Actg. Sergt.; R. Keefe, Actg. Sergt.; J. Power, Constable; J. Simmons, Constable; A. Greene, Constable; M. Dunn, Supt. Fire Dept.; F. Winsor, District Chief; J. Trebble, District Chief; P. Kane, District Chief; J. Reardon, Sergt.; L. Calnes, Sergt.; N. Neary, Geo. J. Coughlan, Secy. and Accountant.

The Non-Commissioned Officers and men stationed at Outport stations co-operated with the City Force, in the above presentation.

The Inspector-General made a very suitable reply and thanked the men for their presentation, and also on behalf of Mrs. Hutchings and family reciprocated best wishes to all ranks of the force and their families for a very Happy New Year.

Danish Ship's

Hard Time.

The Danish schooner Eva arrived in port on Wednesday morning. She left Fogo for Oporto 22 days ago and met with a succession of bad storms. Losing three sails, jibboom and headgear, and having 9 stanchions and two boats smashed, she came near to being lost herself, and a part of her cargo had to be thrown overboard.
