

SPOILT! NOT LIKELY.

You never have your films or prints spoilt at Tooton's. There is no store in town that has such up-to-the-minute apparatus for Developing and Printing.

The recently installed new plant for developing prevents any defective negatives, and the printing from negatives is only carried out by thoroughly proficient workers.

To get your films satisfactorily developed — perfect prints from the negatives, and promptness, you'll find it best to go to the Kodak Store.

TOOTON'S,
The Kodak Store, 309 Water Street.
PHONE 131.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

THE MOST IMPORTANT VIRTUE.

"There is one virtue that matters more than all others. I have that virtue. I am a shining example of it. A great many other people don't have it. I can't tell you anyone who does not have it."

Can you imagine anyone saying that? Can you imagine anyone saying that just once or twice, but over and over again to old friends and to people who were not at all.

Oh, No, We Wouldn't Boast. Doubtless you and I are not like that. We believe in being modest and not saying things about our own virtues, don't we, even by inference?

"I Am Always Frank." L cannot hear people who always so reserved you can't tell them. She tells you so as she meets you and she tells you at frequent intervals ever "Now I," she says, "am always frank. I suppose it's a fault, but I know perfectly well she doesn't think that way I'm made. I just fight out the way I feel. If I show it. And then I always show it. If I have something disagreeable, I say I can't bear people who are so call to call a spade a spade, can't I like people to be frank. Then know where you stand with them. I like people who act like all the time and so forth."

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an itching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Eat MRS. STEWART'S Home Made Bread.—apr4,emo

What's Brought Up That Way." This is the way Miss C. talks. You can bear that vulgar Mrs. She has the crudest thing I ever saw. I think a person like that is absolutely unbearable. Don't I think anyone who is unreserved can be nice in other ways? Certainly not. I don't suppose they can help it. It's the sort of people they come from but I really can't stand such people. I wasn't brought up that way. I may not have had as much money as some or studied some of the things girls learn in colleges to-day but I was taught the reserve of a gentleman.

Perhaps she does not say it quite so plainly as Mrs. L. but she certainly does not leave you in much doubt as to which is the cardinal virtue in her dealings, and as to how much of it she thinks she possesses, does she?

Their sons join the Service! And their daughters marry Service men!

McGuire's Ice Cream now ready for delivery. Wholesale only. Phone 794.—jms11

My Lady Nicotine.

(From the London Morning Post.) Most people will probably be surprised to know that Sir James Barrie, who is now installed as rector of St. Andrew's University, had practically never smoked up to the time when he was writing "My Lady Nicotine." Such, however, is the fact. Until then he had merely toyed, now and again, with a cigarette—and hadn't liked it! But his friends smoked a tobaccoist's shop interested him—and the rest came. Sir James has never revealed the secret of his success in play-writing, but years ago he gave away his recipe for fiction. It was as follows:—Eight pipes 1 oz. 1 week, 2 weeks, 1 chapter, 20 chapters, 1 nib, 2 nbs, 1 novel.

A delicious cocktail is made with strawberries and orange juice. Let the berries stand in the sweetened orange juice, and chill thoroughly. Casserole of beef is an excellent dish in which to use up left-over vegetables. In place of part of the gravy, canned tomatoes may be used.

Wandering Wives.

(From an Exchange.) Three removals as bad as a fire? said an officer's wife bitterly. "Well, we've removed nine times in the past three years!"

What an existence! But how many people spend the best years of their lives in removing and settling down again, buying and selling furniture making and breaking friendships?

The Methodist minister removes with clockwork regularity every three years. He no sooner gets a grip on his congregation than it is time to go.

He is, however, able to foresee his removals, and he always gets a house, some fixtures, and a garden on which it has been worth the previous tenant's while to spend a little time and money.

An army officer's wife may expect to get a little more time in one place now that things are more settled; but she has to put up with houses which are let furnished at extortionate rates, or furnished rooms whose owners object to children.

In the Royal Air Force an officer is at present much more of a wanderer, and drags his wife and babies from one unsatisfactory set of "diggings" to another. The rooms always seem to be a long way from the aerodrome and he may move as many as three times in one year.

These people may expect to be supplied with married quarters some day, and possibly after that will in most cases move every three or five years.

For naval officers shore jobs are scarce, and the unfortunate wife resides first in one port and then in another; and for the greater part of the time has not even the comfort of her husband's presence.

But they all get a rest sometimes—the irony of it!—they get a rest when their husbands go to a foreign station.

Service pay abroad is the same as in England. In India the total of pay and allowances for a married officer is less than at home! So with the prospect of greatly increased expenses and less money, the soldier goes on his five years' exile, leaving his heart in England. And with that part of his pay which by rigid self-denial he can send her, his wife runs a makeshift little home.

For five years she may elect to go with him, though for junior officers with children the wisdom of this step is doubtful. Every six months the wife will have to remove either to or from the hills, and even were it not so it is not worth while buying furniture when a transfer to a station a thousand miles away may happen any day. Household gods never bless these moving tents.

After about 20 years of this, 10 of which they have spent apart, the husbands and wives settle down together at last.

Wandering Wives.

(From an Exchange.) Three removals as bad as a fire? said an officer's wife bitterly. "Well, we've removed nine times in the past three years!"

What an existence! But how many people spend the best years of their lives in removing and settling down again, buying and selling furniture making and breaking friendships?

The Methodist minister removes with clockwork regularity every three years. He no sooner gets a grip on his congregation than it is time to go.

He is, however, able to foresee his removals, and he always gets a house, some fixtures, and a garden on which it has been worth the previous tenant's while to spend a little time and money.

An army officer's wife may expect to get a little more time in one place now that things are more settled; but she has to put up with houses which are let furnished at extortionate rates, or furnished rooms whose owners object to children.

In the Royal Air Force an officer is at present much more of a wanderer, and drags his wife and babies from one unsatisfactory set of "diggings" to another. The rooms always seem to be a long way from the aerodrome and he may move as many as three times in one year.

These people may expect to be supplied with married quarters some day, and possibly after that will in most cases move every three or five years.

For naval officers shore jobs are scarce, and the unfortunate wife resides first in one port and then in another; and for the greater part of the time has not even the comfort of her husband's presence.

But they all get a rest sometimes—the irony of it!—they get a rest when their husbands go to a foreign station.

Service pay abroad is the same as in England. In India the total of pay and allowances for a married officer is less than at home! So with the prospect of greatly increased expenses and less money, the soldier goes on his five years' exile, leaving his heart in England. And with that part of his pay which by rigid self-denial he can send her, his wife runs a makeshift little home.

For five years she may elect to go with him, though for junior officers with children the wisdom of this step is doubtful. Every six months the wife will have to remove either to or from the hills, and even were it not so it is not worth while buying furniture when a transfer to a station a thousand miles away may happen any day. Household gods never bless these moving tents.

After about 20 years of this, 10 of which they have spent apart, the husbands and wives settle down together at last.

Their sons join the Service! And their daughters marry Service men!

McGuire's Ice Cream now ready for delivery. Wholesale only. Phone 794.—jms11

My Lady Nicotine.

(From the London Morning Post.) Most people will probably be surprised to know that Sir James Barrie, who is now installed as rector of St. Andrew's University, had practically never smoked up to the time when he was writing "My Lady Nicotine." Such, however, is the fact. Until then he had merely toyed, now and again, with a cigarette—and hadn't liked it! But his friends smoked a tobaccoist's shop interested him—and the rest came. Sir James has never revealed the secret of his success in play-writing, but years ago he gave away his recipe for fiction. It was as follows:—Eight pipes 1 oz. 1 week, 2 weeks, 1 chapter, 20 chapters, 1 nib, 2 nbs, 1 novel.

A delicious cocktail is made with strawberries and orange juice. Let the berries stand in the sweetened orange juice, and chill thoroughly. Casserole of beef is an excellent dish in which to use up left-over vegetables. In place of part of the gravy, canned tomatoes may be used.

Wandering Wives.

(From an Exchange.) Three removals as bad as a fire? said an officer's wife bitterly. "Well, we've removed nine times in the past three years!"

What an existence! But how many people spend the best years of their lives in removing and settling down again, buying and selling furniture making and breaking friendships?

The Methodist minister removes with clockwork regularity every three years. He no sooner gets a grip on his congregation than it is time to go.

He is, however, able to foresee his removals, and he always gets a house, some fixtures, and a garden on which it has been worth the previous tenant's while to spend a little time and money.

An army officer's wife may expect to get a little more time in one place now that things are more settled; but she has to put up with houses which are let furnished at extortionate rates, or furnished rooms whose owners object to children.

In the Royal Air Force an officer is at present much more of a wanderer, and drags his wife and babies from one unsatisfactory set of "diggings" to another. The rooms always seem to be a long way from the aerodrome and he may move as many as three times in one year.

These people may expect to be supplied with married quarters some day, and possibly after that will in most cases move every three or five years.

For naval officers shore jobs are scarce, and the unfortunate wife resides first in one port and then in another; and for the greater part of the time has not even the comfort of her husband's presence.

But they all get a rest sometimes—the irony of it!—they get a rest when their husbands go to a foreign station.

Service pay abroad is the same as in England. In India the total of pay and allowances for a married officer is less than at home! So with the prospect of greatly increased expenses and less money, the soldier goes on his five years' exile, leaving his heart in England. And with that part of his pay which by rigid self-denial he can send her, his wife runs a makeshift little home.

For five years she may elect to go with him, though for junior officers with children the wisdom of this step is doubtful. Every six months the wife will have to remove either to or from the hills, and even were it not so it is not worth while buying furniture when a transfer to a station a thousand miles away may happen any day. Household gods never bless these moving tents.

After about 20 years of this, 10 of which they have spent apart, the husbands and wives settle down together at last.

Their sons join the Service! And their daughters marry Service men!

Borden's Whips!
ST. CHARLES
With the Cream left in!
Send for instructions on booklet—its free!

Just Follies
THE SMALL BOY TELLS.
They say that the trouble with me is I go Out to the neighbors and tell all I know! That when I'm at the table I'm certain to say: "Whatever is done and whatever is said, And they shut up like oysters whenever I'm there— But Pa didn't like it when Sis bobbed her hair!"

She could eat anything
—without indigestion or sleeplessness
For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond. Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank. She found she could eat anything and sleep peacefully afterward. Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juices. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion. Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

MOTH BALLS (Best Quality)
at STAFFORD'S, only 10c. per package.—jnl11f

NICKEL Sidney A. Franklin's NICKEL
GREAT PRODUCTION
"UNSEEN FORCES."
Gaze into the crystal and see a love that waned and a love that won. "Unseen Forces" is a play of the unknown and unexpected. A TRULY WONDERFUL PICTURE—A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION.
FAY TINCHER and the Follies Girls in "DINING ROOM, KITCHEN AND SINK."
COMING! "THE GREAT ADVENTURE" with LIONEL BARRYMORE. WATCH FOR IT.

BIG VALUES
Men's Boots!
Men's Mahogany Calf Blucher $4.75
MEN'S MAHOGANY CALF—Pointed last, Goodyear welt, $6.50
MEN'S MAHOGANY CALF BLUCHER—Goodyear welt, at $8.00 and $8.50
MEN'S MAHOGANY CALF BLUCHER OXFORD — Goodyear welt . . . . . $7.00
MEN'S BLACK GUNMETAL BLUCHER . . . . . $5.00
MEN'S BLACK VICI KID BLUCHER . . . . . $6.00
MEN'S BLACK GUNMETAL CALF —Pointed last. (welt) . . . $6.00
MEN'S BLACK CALF BLUCHER —Goodyear welt . . . . . $7.00

F. Smallwood,
The Home of Good Shoes, Water Street.
apr129t.

BEAUTIES OF NATURE.
I went with Blitzen in his van, along a country road; he's a romantic sort of man, to men, to whom this life's an ode. He's always seeing lovely things, wherever he may look; he boosts the little bird that sings, goes batty o'er a brook. With one hand on the steering wheel, he glanced to left and right; "this lovely landscape makes me feel like wrapping with delight. How wonderful that field of wheat, that stretch of fragrant hay! Oh, life is glorious and sweet, on such a golden day!" "Yes, life's a scream," I slowly said, "but when you drive a bus you ought to keep your eyes ahead, and cut out all the fuss. When you're afoot it's well to mark the sunshine on the grain, and trill about it like a lark—not when you tool a wain." "Oh, life is full and sweet and rich," he cried, his eyes aswim; and then he dumped us in the ditch and broke my harboard link. I'd rather ride with one who takes long chances here and there, than with the delegate who rakes the landscape with his stare. A driver shouldn't watch the goats that play upon the grass, or rubber at the fields of oats, as he steps on the gas. He shouldn't think of things afar, but play the driver's game; to navigate his creaking car should be his highest aim.

Three E.E.E.'s Footwear
Wears Well and Lasts Long
Three E.E.E.'s is a Ladies' Footwear of fine quality and dainty design that lasts long and wears well. It is not surprising, therefore, that it is invariably chosen by many ladies who can, if they so desire, afford to pay far more for their shoes, but who prefer the Three E.E.E.'s combination of style and service at a reasonable price.
Made by Archibald Bros., Harbor Grace.

MUTT AND JEFF—

JUST THINK OF THAT, MY WORD!
PAUL REVERE TIED HIS HORSE TO THIS TREE, ETC.

JEFF UNCORKS A HOT SHOT.

MASSACHUSETTS IS AN INTERESTING STATE. SO MUCH OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR HISTORY WAS MADE HERE! I'M GONNA GRAB A FEED IN THAT OLD INN!
WAITER, I WAS LOOKING AT THE PAUL REVERE TREE. DID PAUL EVER EAT IN HERE?
YES! BUT GEORGE WASHINGTON WAS A REGULAR CUSTOMER!

—By Bud Fisher

MY WORD! AND TO THINK I'M GONNA EAT IN THE SAME INN WHERE GEORGE USED TO ORDER HIS HAM AND EGGS!
BY THE WAY, THEY SAY HE USED TO SIT AT THIS VERY TABLE!
WELL, WELL! AND THE TABLECLOTH HASN'T BEEN CHANGED SINCE, EITHER!

Household Notes.

Stained and faded curtain curtains can be dyed a darker shade to match the color scheme of the room.
Before baking a ham, wash it thoroughly and sprinkle it well with soda, then rinse in cold water.
Best household can be scrubbed with a dash of unseasoned but slightly salted ketchup.
String beans are excellent marinated in white sauce, flavored with paprika and a little lemon juice.
Flattening for the top of the cake should be stiffer than that used for filling and filling the other layers.
An excellent little hot cupboard is made by standing on end a slat-wood box and fitting it with shelves.
An ordinary wooden chopping board by painting and shellacking.
A simple way to serve baked asparagus is to sprinkle it with chopped parsley and pour over it brown butter.
Cold baked asparagus, thinly sliced hard-boiled eggs, radishes, ripe olives and boxed anchovies, make a tempting salad.