WHEELER'S GAETIC COMPANY.—This Star Company entertained last Tuesday evening an appreciative audience, and the performance throughout justified the high commendations of the published press for him. The very handsome and accomplished and graceful singing and artistic generalship of Mr. Sam. Wheeler, an Irish comedian with great success in his previous visits; claims a prominent position as a comic delineator of negro character, who in songs or dances, is never thought not last comes the famous little prodigy of a boy, Master Bennie, whose versatile impersonations astonish and delight admiring spectators. Mr. Davidson's finish to the entertainment by discoursing excellent music to the strain. The very performance again to-night with an entire change of programme, and lovers of "varietal" and "gaetic" will do well to patronize them as they deserve. Indeed Gardner's "stamp speech" is worth the price charged for the entire entertainment, not to speak of the side-splitting farce of "Trousesome Servants" by Master Bennie, and Messrs. Wheeler and Gardner.

Rev. Dr. Islay, Burns, one of the Free Church Professors, Glasgow, died on the 20th of May in the 55th year of his age. He was a brother to the well known missionary to China, W. G. Burns, whose life has been extensively read in Canada; and a nephew of the late Dr. Burns of this city. He succeeded the Rev. Robert M. McCheyne as Free Church minister of St. Peter's, Dundee. In this position he continued twenty years when he was succeeded by Dr. Hetherington as Professor.

Guelph Evening Mercury

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1872

Town and County News.

The Drayton Enterprise records the death of Mrs. Samuel Robertson, after a severe and lingering illness.

Five or six farmers left on Monday for North Carolina on a prospecting tour, some having the intention of buying farms there.

The Canadian Ice Keeper's Guide is an excellent and very manual for those who keep bees. It is written by J. H. Thomas the well-known bee-keeper. For sale by Mr. J. Anderson.

The inefficient colors to be presented by the ladies of Walkerton, Kinross and Southampton, to the Bruce Battalion, have arrived from England. The Battalion will bring them into use at the Windsor Camp.

Whitby Chronicle.—This excellent paper has been enlarged to thirty-six columns, and the enterprising proprietor has furnished his office with a new power press, new type, and other improved printing material, by the skillful use of which the paper presents a very handsome appearance.

Billiards.—The Hamilton Times says:—On Monday evening Mr. A. Eger, of this city, played a friendly game of billiards at Eger's billiard hall, Kingston, Ont. The score was 71 runs in the large room, and 114 of an average. Mr. Eger's greatest run during the game was 36, average run 13. Quite a large number assembled to witness the game.

The Wellington Field Battery.—The Battery leaves for Windsor on Monday at one o'clock. It will remain at London all night, and proceed next day to the camp along with the London Artillery. The battery is composed of the Battalion (including the left wing from Puslinch), and 57 horses. The officers are Capt. Macdonald, First Lieutenant McGee and Nicoll, and second Lieutenant Macdonald. The Wellington Battalion, we believe, does not leave till the morning of the 14th inst.

Appals from Magistrate's Convictions on Sunday.—A correspondent asks:—How is it that so many convictions for the above offence are quashed on appeal to the Judge of the County? Is it because half of the fine going to the informer, the party convicted compromise the matter with that personage by paying him the amount he would receive, minus the olivine, trouble &c., if the conviction was sustained by the Superior Court? At least such is the supposition current and on no mean authority either. If so, the law requires amendment on this point, and by giving the informer the amount he would receive, minus the olivine, trouble &c., if the conviction was sustained by the Superior Court? At least such is the supposition current and on no mean authority either.
