The loss is estimated from $100,000 to $200,000.

The Christmas Fairs.
To the Editor of the Mercoux;
Sin, - The dates mentioned in your issue of Saturday will not suit Fergus and Elora at all. If the Guelph Fair is held on Wednesday, 11th, either the Fergus and Elora fairs must be held on the same day or else one of them will have to be has proved that Monday does not answer at all, because, in order to attend, buyers would have to come up the week previous and remain here over Sunday, and this they will not do, or at least they have not done heretofore. If Guelph took Thursday, the 12th, Elora could take Wednes day, the 11th, and Fergus Tuesday, the day, the 11th, and Fergus Tuesday, the 10th, which would give buyers an opportunity of coming up on Morday. This would probably answer Guelph quite as well as the dates mentioned in your issue of Saturday, and it would certainly be a very great accommodation to Fergus and Elora. Trusting that the proper parties will see the reasonableness of the proposition and make the changes mentioned, I am

He accused Gambetta of entertaining and seeking to spread socialistic ideas. This charge created much excitement in the Chamber and the Speaker called the meeting to order. The Deputies on the right tried to provoke Gambetta to reply, but he declined and only shrugged his shoulders. President Thiers mounted the tribune in defence of the Government. He protested being placed at the bar as a criminal, and threw out intimation that he might appeal to the country.

He admitted that in a speech made by Gambetta at Grenolbe he was offensive, but claimed that the Government was not sresponsible. The President concluded by demanding a vote of confidence from the House. Deputy Mettotal moved that a vote of confidence be immediately taken. Sixty thousand persons are houseless, the corn had been aiready sown. In the Datily News we read; "The Po continues to increase at the rate of two centimetres an hour. The left bank of the Panaro is seriously threatened. The consternation is general. Thousands of persons continue to hurry away from the district and the country is almost descreted. Fortunately the weather is fine. Several of the Emilian communes appear like enormous lakes. The tops of the trees and houses can scarcely be seen. The cattle are dying for want of food, and a large number have been carried away by the water. There is great activity in the villages on the Po. Men, children and soldiers have been dispatched from the towns, they are engaged in filling sacks with earth for the purpose of strengthening the embankment.
