> > MILLER.HOWSE

On Thursday night, Dec. 28th, 1911, at Pine Grove, 9th con. of Malabide, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Howse, was the scene of a most enjoyable affair. A miscellaneous shower was given in houor of their niece, Miss Frances Howse. The house was lavishly decorated for the occasion, the rooms being festooned with pine. At a quarter to ten, just before partaking of a dainty luncheon, the assembled guests to the number of $0, were pleasantly surprised when Miss Frances Howse, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Howse, and Mr. Angus Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Miller, of Luta, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by the Rev. A. E. Doan, M. A., B.D ,of Luton. The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of blue velvet. After receiving congratulations and good wishes, the happy couple left on their wedding trip, the bride travellieg gifts proclaimed in what high esteem on their return will reside at Luton.
