Sweeping Sales! Wm. Abbott BEING determined to sell goods at the very smallest possible advance on cost, and allow the public to get the benefit of the change, has resolved, after this date, to credit only those who are prompt payers, and permanent settlers of the neighborhood. Hereafter not a single wholesale purchase will be made by him unless cash can be paid when the goods are ordered. As he will therefore be able to buy cheaper than ever, it is a natural consequence that he will be enabled in the future to offer such inducements to his customers as they cannot get elsewhere in the County of Perth. BOOTS AND SHOES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION Will be disposed of at the same figures which those who buy wholesale, on time, are obliged to pay for the same articles. Here the public saves a big percentage, and we doubt if their good judgment if they will not take advantage of the offer. HARNESS, Heavy and light, black and silver mounted, heavy in stock and made to order. The best workmen employed, and none but good material used. Leather and findings supplied wholesale and retail. A call is respectfully solicited. Cash paid for Hides, Skins, &c. W. ABBOTT. Mitchell, Dec. 6 1871. ALLAN LINE OF ROYAL MAIL STEAMSHIPS.
