CLOSE TO COOMASSIE.

London, Jan. 13.—The Ashantee expedition has reached a point within 23 miles of Coomassie, the capital of Ashantee. The final advance on that place will be made today.

TEN THOUSAND ABYSSINIANS KILLED.

London, Jan. 13.—A special dispatch received from Rome says that 10,000 Abyssinians were killed or wounded in the attack made upon Markale on Jan. 8. Later reports received here are to the effect that the heavy Abyssinian losses in the attack upon Markale, on Jan. 8, when 10,000 natives were killed, was due to the explosion of mines laid by the Italians outside of the fortifications.

BISMARCK'S HEALTH.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—It is semi-officially announced that Prince Bismarck will not be able to come to Berlin upon the occasion of the celebration of the anniversary of the proclamation of the German empire, Jan. 18. Prince Bismarck has been compelled to ask his Majesty to excuse his absence on the ground that his health would not permit him to undertake the journey to Berlin.

KING OF COREA EVICTED.

London, Jan. 13.—A dispatch from Seoul says: The Japanese have forced the king to leave the palace. Two Koreans implicated in the assassination of the queen have been hanged. A scheme is said to exist for placing the Tai Wan Kun, the favorite nephew of the king, on the throne. Only the minimum number of troops required to guard the palace are maintained, the rest having been withdrawn.

LOST AT SEA.

London, Jan. 13.—A steamer and three sailing vessels were wrecked on the Island of Ischia, Italy, during a storm yesterday. Several lives were lost.

The Cunard Line steamer Cephalonia, which struck a rock while bound from Boston for Liverpool, and was subsequently beached near the shore, was got away yesterday morning by means of pontoons and tugs.

SLAUGHTER OF ARABS.

London, Jan. 13.—Mr. M. H. Johnston, Imperial Commissioner in the British Central Africa protectorate, reported that he carried on in December a successful campaign against the Arabs north of Lake Nyasa. Two hundred and fourteen Arabs were captured in battle, and Chief Mungwa was killed. Several stock-herds were captured. The British force lost about 40 Indian and black soldiers.

bers of the anti-Parnellite section of the Irish party did not take part in the recent Irish round table conference held in Dublin for the purpose of discussing measures for the general good of Ireland, which may be submitted to Parliament.

The Redmondites took part in the proceedings under the declaration that home rule was their abiding principle.

FRANCE FOR PEACE.

Paris, Jan. 13.—Prime Minister Bourgeois attended a banquet at Lyons last evening and in the course of his speech said that changes at home never rendered France's policy abroad in the least degree uncertain. The whole policy of France should be summed up in the declaration that she was for the maintenance of peace and development of justice. France would maintain peace not only for herself, but as she has recently been helping to maintain it for all in the interest of civilization.

ADULTERATED GRAIN.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—A new step has been taken in the agrarian campaign against foreign competition. The agrarians will exert powerful pressure in favor of excluding all foreign cereals containing an admixture of weeds.

This makes them unfit for food. Prof. Heimsch, of Rostock University, and other experts have made a series of microscopic examinations of Russian, American and Roumanian cereals with results, it is claimed, which show a large admixture of deleterious foreign matter.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

London, Jan. 13.—An official dispatch received at Madrid from Havana says that after the defeat of the insurgents at Zella (Lacabba), under Masco, they had killed 142 corpses were picked up on the field.

The civil war in Cuba attracts less attention here than the financial straits of the Madrid Government.

From Madrid, however, but indicating the ultimate failure of Marshal Campos, with his garrison of a hundred thousand men, to suppress the rebellion. The news from Havana had a serious effect upon Spanish funds.

In his reply, which the Chronicle will publish today, Mr. Gladstone says: "My opinion on arbitration is unchanged, but I think that I cannot usefully appear in a public discussion at this moment."

RUSSIA'S LATEST ACQUISITION.

London, Jan. 13.—A sensation has been caused in Japan by Russia's action in acquiring the port of Kiaoow.

China, as a naval station during the winter. The port is a spacious bay on the southern side of the Shantung peninsula. A certain sinister significance seems to attach to the presence of a Chinese peninsula.

While Japanese force occupied a fortified harbor on the other, and in view of the fact that Japan's occupation is temporarily being dependent upon the complete payment of the indemnity, and that the supposed object of Russia is to exclude the Japanese from all positions on Chinese soil.

The threatened cabinet crisis in Japan has passed.

GERMANY'S RELATIONS TO ENGLAND.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—In view of the fact that the future of Germany's relations with England is involved in doubt, Chancellor Prince von Hohenlohe has sent assuring communications to the Governments of Austria and Italy.

It is understood that the Chancellor's communications express pacific intentions on the part of Germany towards England, and also a belief that the good understanding between Germany and Great Britain would be restored at an early day.

AUSTRALIA LOYAL.

London, Jan. 13.—Hon. George H. Reid, Prime Minister of New South Wales, has sent the following cable dispatch to Lord Salisbury: "The Governments of Australia and Tasmania view with satisfaction the prompt and fearless measures adopted by her Majesty's Government in defence of the integrity of the Empire. We desire to convey our united assurances of loyal support. The people of Australia are in full sympathy with the determination of the mother country to resist any interference with the matters of British and colonial concern. (Signed in behalf of and at the request of the Governments of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia) G. H. REID."

THE SLAUGHTER OF ARMENIANS.

London, Jan. 13.—A Constantinople correspondent says that more complete tables of the persons killed and property destroyed in the provinces of Kharput and Diarbekir show that 175 towns and villages, containing 8,650 Armenian houses, were burned. The Armenians in those towns and villages numbered 92,000, and of these 15,845 were killed. This excludes the uncertain reports of killings at Cambon, the French ambassador, estimates the total number of Armenians killed in Anatolia at 5,000.

It is stated that the French Government, through the influence of M. de Mun, the Turkish ambassador, will agree to surrender to the Sultan Turkish subjects in France who are wanted by the Porte.

Baron von Caltze, the Austrian ambassador, and Baron von Saurma-Jettich, the German ambassador, had private audiences with the Sultan on Friday. The Government is trying to force the resignation of the Armenian Patriarch, and is compelling Armenians to sign papers expressing dissatisfaction with him. The new consuls for interior points have not left Aleppo yet.

THE SPIDER AND THE FLY.

Paris, Jan. 13.—In spite of rumors to the contrary, Max Le Baudy, the wealthy young conscript who seems to have been hounded to death by blackmailers and others, really left his fortune to Mile. de Marsy, the actress of the Comedie Francaise. Although the property is valued at from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000, Mile. de Marsy refused to accept the bequest. But it is understood the Le Baudy family will handsomely provide for her. The blackmail revelations are the sensation of the day in this city. The Vicomte Elie de Clivry, editor of the Echo de l'Armeur, who was arrested Jan. 9, charged with blackmailing young Le Baudy, is a grandson of the eccentric Charles, Duke of Brunswick, and his Englishmorganatic wife, De Clivry was Le Baudy's pseudo friend and confidential secretary at a salary of $2,000 ($30,000). Le Baudy's alleged friends seemed to have robbed him right and left, with the exception of Mile. de Marsy, who successfully used her influence to prevent him from deserting from the army, and kept him away from those who were attempting to accomplish his social as well as physical deal. It is said that Le Baudy was to marry Mile. de Marsy when his term of active service in the army expired.

The arrest of Rosenthal, the journalist, otherwise known as "Jacques St. Cere," charged with being connected with the scandal growing out of the settlement of Le Baudy's estate, has caused a flutter among the journalists of this city. Documents are said to have been seized by the police showing that Rosenthal promised to secure Le Baudy's discharge from the army, with the assistance of the Russian embassy for 40,000 francs. Rosenthal appears to have received 25,000 francs of this amount. The authorities say that Rosenthal has made confessions and that it is also stated that he has been charged with espionage, this charge being based upon papers which were found by the police at his residence.

CABLE NOTES.

A correspondent at Rome says: Leo XIII. has formally expressed his disapproval of the projected congress of religions to be held at Paris during the exposition of 1900.

Great Britain has congratulated Portugal upon the capture of Gungun, the East African chief, who has been hostile to the Portuguese for a long time and upon the consolidation of Portuguese authority in the Province of Mozambique.

The Transvaal.

Sixty of the Johannesburg Reform Committee Arrested.

Proclamation Issued by President Kruger.

Admiral Rawson Sails at Once for Delagoa Bay—Rhodes Says His Career Has Only Just Begun.

Cape Town, Jan. 13.—Rear Admiral Harry S. Rawson, commanding the Cape and West Africa squadron, who was recently ordered to take his flagship, the St. George, to Delagoa Bay, at once proceeded for that place. The St. George is a twin-screw cruiser of the first class. She mounts twelve guns. The Ex-Prime Minister Cecil Rhodes has started for Kimberley. His intentions are unknown.

The report that the first and second naval reserves had been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for service is without foundation.

Work was carried on all day yesterday (Sunday) at the Plymouth and Davenport ordnance yards, the men being engaged in cleaning the ship's guns for the use of the flying squadron.

THE PRISONERS.

Pretoria, Transvaal, Jan. 13.—Sixty members of the reform committee at Johannesburg are now under arrest. It is believed that only the five ring-leaders will be detained. The rank and file of the Jameson expedition who were captured by the Boers and brought to this place have started for the Natal border. The officers of the expedition are expected to follow shortly.

The customs officials have opened a large safe that was consigned to Parry, one of the leaders in the Rand raid, and found that it contained 100 revolvers and 7,000 rounds of cartridges.

PRESIDENT KRUGER'S PROCLAMATION.

President Kruger has issued a proclamation to the people of the Rand, saying he believes they have been deceived by a small number of designing men outside of the country. He urges the Rand residents to co-operate with the Government now to make the Rand a country where all nationalities can live fraternally together. He promises that Johannesburg shall have a mayor and a municipal council, and concludes: "Let the inhabitants of Johannesburg make it possible for the Government to appear before the Volksraad with the words, 'Forget and forgive.'"

RHODES.

Kimberley, Jan. 13.—Right Hon. Cecil Rhodes, former Prime Minister of Cape Colony, arrived here yesterday and was cordially received. In a speech expressing his thanks for his reception he said that his political career was not at an end; it was only beginning. He firmly believed that, encouraged by his friends, he would like to do much good work in behalf of his country.

THE LATEST SITUATION.

London, Jan. 13.—The political crisis has reached a stage when a further development must be awaited before the general public or the newspapers can form
