The railway between these points is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Four miles of rail have been already laid, and the track will be completed along the course laid down in 1884, in order to pass the cataracts. For the guard-ing of the railway, strong posts have been established on the Nile at Semneh, Wady Ambigol, Tangur and Sonki. Watson, junior member of the firm of Watson Bros., whose mill was destroyed by thte boiler explosion on Monday last, died on Saturday evening, the immediate cause of his death being pneumonia. This makes the fourth victim of the unfortunate affair. Deceased was in his 35th year, and leaves a wife and son twelve years of Wm. Newcombe, who was also injured in the explosion, shows some improvement, but as he is over 60 years of age his recovery is uncertain.
