POOL-SELLERS ARRESTED.

But the Policemen Place Bets and the New York, March 10.—Policemen in plain clothes visited a number of poolrooms this afternoon, placed bets, and then they arrested the men who sold them the cickets. The men were discharged by Justice White. All the policemen maid commissions arrested the men who sold them the All the policemen paid commissions in placing their bets, and when the justice learned this he decided that the poolsellers could not be held. The arrests were made upon the complaint of Anthony Comstock.

Big Railway Strike Threatened.

Big Railway Strike Threatened.

TOLEDO, O., March 10.—There is imminent danger of the Ann Arbor strike apreading to connecting lines. At a meeting to-day of the engineers of all the railroads entering the city, it was decided not to handle any freight received from the Ann Arbor, so that as soon as that company had freight to offer its connections the engineers on those lines will probably go out. Strongly Indorsed.

The advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking neople, because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by indorsements which in the financial world would be accepted without HOOD'S CURES.
