

Charlie Murphy May Laugh If Johnny Evers Makes Good While Frank Chance and Joe Tinker Fail, BUT---

The summer of 1913 may be pleasant for owner Charlie Murphy of the Chicago Cubs, and then it may be decidedly unpleasant. Much of Murphy's baseball reputation is staked on the outcome of the year's campaign.

If Johnny Evers comes across and makes a big showing with the Cubs, Murphy will be in a position to receive compliments upon his shrewdness in changing managers.

If Frank Chance fails notably with New York, more praise will be coming Murphy's way.

If Joe Tinker is unable to satisfy Cincinnati fans, Murphy will have a perfect right to remark, "I told you so." The odds, however, are somewhat against Murphy.

Chance has little material in New York, apparently. Baseball men do not expect him to cut a very wide swath with the team this year.

Lots of improvement may be made with the Yankees. Chance is sure to do better and will come in for plenty of credit. Almost anything he does with the team will be an improvement over the showing of 1912. Chance has nothing to lose and everything to gain in Gotham. Murphy can scarcely expect to laugh at the expense of the "Peerless Leader."

Tinker's proposition in Cincinnati is more difficult. Possibly Joe will startle the natives, but it hardly seems fair to expect Tinker to improve the position of the team last year, fourth, during his first season as manager.

Tinker needs pitching material. Frequently last season I heard Manager O'Day lament the lack of classy pitching.

If Tinker is so fortunate as to develop a couple of young pitchers who can go the route, the Red Sox may be singing his praise as late as November.

JOHNNY EVERS.

Evers has his work cut out for him. The release of Chance was far from popular. Chance and Tinker will be missed, although apparently Murphy has signed up stars to give the Cubs a different appearance from that of last December. Under Chance the Cubs were great, always a pennant contender. Evers can scarcely fall short of this mark without censure.

DEL. CHAPUT THIRD PLAYER TO REPORT TO LONDON CLUB

Former Berlin Pitcher Arrived This Morning, Looking Hale and Hearty—Pitcher Berlin Unable to Report—He Has the Measles.

[BY JINX.]

Del. J. Chaput, sometimes known as "Frenchy," one of the Canadian League's premier pitchers in 1911, arrived in London this morning and reported to Manager Deneau. Del is looking fine, and is sporting a big gold band on his left hand, said gold band being stamped with his name and address, and the information that he was raver on the Portage Lake hockey team, champions of the United States. As a hockey player Mr. Chaput has been achieving as much fame in the Copper Country as he did in the Canadian League two seasons ago, and judging by the size of the ring, he is some little party on skates. He claims that his team beat out everything there was to beat on the other side of the line (that's why they're called champions of the U. S.), and then hurled darts to the T. R. and A. A. club of Toronto. However, the senior O. H. A. champions were afraid to play them. At least, that is what Del says, and he was always known as a model young man in Hubble, Mich. Chaput is the third player to report. No practice will be held this afternoon, but if the weather holds good and enough players arrive, Manager Deneau will have a workout at the park tomorrow.

The club was notified this morning that Pitcher Berlin will not be able to report for ten days or so. He has a bad attack of the measles, and will be laid up for some days as a result.

Hans Wagner May Be Out of the Game For Several Months

[Canadian Press.]

Boston, April 22.—Hans Wagner, the Pittsburgh's greatest shortstop, is likely to be out of the game for some months, according to what is quoted in baseball circles here as "the official word." The statement is made that Wagner's absence from his team is due to a floating cartilage in the knee, revealed by specialists in the west last week, and it is said that in the course of a few days Wagner will undergo an operation in New York. It is declared that even with a favorable result Wagner will probably have to lay off until Aug. 1, and if unsuccessful, the chances are that the Pittsburgh club will lose permanently the services of one of the greatest players baseball has known.

Neuralgia's Burning Pain Checked---Then Cured

Stronger Proof of Cure Could Scarcely Be Found Than This.

WORST CASES CURED AT HOME.

"To be really cured of Neuralgia is a marvel to me," writes Davidson E. Plummer, from Kingston, Ontario. "During the six weeks Neuralgia held me in its grip I suffered agony. When I had used almost every remedy hope fairly died within me. Twice every day the attacks would recur. Had the pain been persistent I could not have borne it. I was away out in Alberta when the attack came, and was probably not robust enough for the conditions of life in that new country. I just had to suffer, as nothing seemed to subside that awful burning pain. But relief was coming all the same, and thousands of miles, for some new people came in from the Maritime Provinces and they brought with them a number of bottles of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I bought a box and began to take them. The first bottle seemed to fluctuate. Hope would rise, then followed despair, but within twenty-four hours Neville's victory was assured. The first bottle cured, and I am still well. The second bottle has also used for colds, earache, toothache, sick headache and other internal disorders. I will never be without Neville's again."

No home is either safe or complete without Neville's. Family size bottles, 50c; trial size, 25c, at all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catterthorne Company, Kingston, Ont.

ARTHUR SHAFER

"Tillie" Shafer looked like a real holdout this Spring, and McGraw was glad to hitch him up to another contract. He has had several years of bench warming, but will be the regular shortstop this season.

He has it on Fletcher as a batter and base-runner, being one of the fastest men in the game getting down to first. His batting average was .238 in 78 games last season, and he stole 22 bases. This year he looks faster than ever, and as long as he continues to hit Fletcher will have to decorate the bench.

Were Showing Wealthy Southerner How to Beat the Races.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, April 22.—Three alleged wiretappers were arrested at the point of a revolver in an uptown hotel last night after attempting, according to the police, to flee Charles White, a wealthy Southerner, of Chattanooga, in a game to beat the races. White had met one of the men on the train coming from the south and permitted himself apparently to be "roped in." Instead, however, White informed the police, and was shown that he had been "roped in." White was supposed to have won $54,000, but was required to produce $25,000 in cash to show that he had the money to make the bet was good, the police swooped down on the trio and took them into custody.

The men gave their names as George Ferns, John Thompson and Charles Franklin. The police say all of them have police records.

A Bad Heart Its Cause and Cure

Many, Firmly Convinced They Are Dying of Heart Trouble, Have Offered the Strongest Hearts.

Sometimes you wake up at night, heart throbbing like a steam engine. Your breathing is short and irregular; pains shoot through the chest and abdomen, and cause horrible anxiety.

Your trouble isn't with the heart at all. These sensations are the outcome of indigestion, which has caused gas to form on the stomach and press against the heart.

Just read what happened to Isaac Maloux, of Belle River, Ont.:

"Three months ago I was a weak, sickly man. My appetite was poor, food fermented in my stomach, I had sour risings and indigestion. At night I would often lie awake with gas in the stomach and heart palpitation."

"I consulted my doctor and used remedies that my friends advised. Nothing helped."

"One day I received a sample of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and my cure commenced. Today I have a vigorous appetite, strong heart action, and no sign of indigestion. I feel younger and healthier than ever before."
