TECS AND BAY CITY WOLVES WILL PLAY FOR CHARITY FRIDAY

KIWANIS PLAN DAY FOR UNDER-PRIVILEGED BOY

Atmosphere of Genial Clubmen Will Surround Charity Day, Displacing Usual Ladies' Day At Tecumseh Park.

Professional baseball in London will help in the work of the local Kiwanis for the underprivileged boys, by turning over the receipts of the game Friday afternoon with the Bay City Wolves to this worthy cause. Owner Foss of the Bay City Club, himself a Kiwanian, has generously aided the work of the local club by turning over his team's share of the day's receipts. It is probable that the Michigan-Ontario League's share will also be given over by President Halligan, in which case the amusement tax will be turned back to charity purposes.

Following the luncheon at the Tecumseh House at noon Friday the boxes will be auctioned off in the lobby of the hotel, so that those not members of the club may bid for box seats.

Added to all this will be the jovial Kiwanian atmosphere at the park, with the famed jazz band in attendance and tune.

This will rank as among the most novel means of raising money for looking after the interests of the underprivileged boy in London, and at the same time, the proceeding speaks voluminously for the public-spiritedness of the owners of both the London and Bay City Baseball Clubs, especially in view of the fact that this is not one of the "fat" years for professional baseballers.
