CLAIM BIG INCREASE IN PROVINCIAL DEBT

Opposition Avers Advance of $10,000,000 Will Be Shown At Budget Time.

Canadian Press Despatch Toronto, Jan. 26.-An increase $10,000,000 in ordinary expenditure during the provincial fiscal year ending October 31, 1922, will, it is said, be reported to the Legislature when the budget comes up for discussion. The previous year's total of $28,579,687 is said to have been increased to over $38,000,000 in 1922. While it is said that there have een general increases all along the ine, the total for the department of ducation is understood to ha jumped from approximately six to nine millions of dollars.

On top of this, however, the Drury government has informally and un-officially claimed to have a surplus to present to the House in the budget. He came out solid-ly in support of the enforcement of the Ontario temperance act, criticiz-ing Conservative members for lack of sympathy with the Drury govern-ment in its efforts to have prohibiment in its efforts to have prohibi-tion laws carried out. He urged that the government should have greater supervision over the expenditures of the Ontario Hydro Commission, and argued that a separate commission to look after hydro radials would be more effective than the machinery provided by the radial bill passed last year by the Legislature. The government, he contended, should do all in its power to hurry an under-standing with the United States, so that water powers on the St. Lawrence River to supply Eastern On-tario could be developed.

He indorsed the government's good roads policy, and suggested as a means of raising further money to
