

CROWNING EVENT OF TERCENTENARY

Prince of Wales Arrives and is Welcomed With Due Ceremony

OLD QUEBEC RESPLENDENT

Distinguished Men Gathered to Meet King's Son and Representative

Quebec, July 22.—Amidst the most gorgeous state ceremonies, the Prince of Wales arrived at Quebec this afternoon, and at last the tercentenary has reached its zenith, the reception of the Prince by the battalions of New Hampshire, and as he landed in the rain and mist the guns of the citadel and the ships boomed forth a salute.

There was a large attendance at the special meeting of the Royal Society of Canada in the Leavel University cover this morning. A discourse on the life and achievements of Champlain was given in English and French.

Mayor Bethune, of Vancouver, and Mayor Hall, of Victoria, reached the city yesterday and are guests at the Chateau Frontenac.

Lord Roberts

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C.P.R., arrived in the city last night and has taken up his residence in a rented house for the tercentenary week. He has met Lord Roberts and urged the veteran soldier to pay a visit to Western Canada.

Lord Roberts has very little time to spare as he sails on August 21, and will meanwhile visit Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls. Sir Thomas, however, made it perfectly plain that the trip to West could be accomplished quickly, saying it would be a great pity if the veteran soldier in his first visit to Canada, should not see Winnipeg and the magnificent prairie country.

Lord Roberts, while not giving a definite reply, stated that he would accept Sir Thomas' hospitality, and go as far west as Calgary.

An alarming rumor was all over the city this morning that Lord Roberts had slipped while walking on the grand staircase and falling heavily had badly injured his knee, besides sustaining a serious shock to his nervous system, but this rumor was denied by the captain, Lord Roberts was with the troops on the morning of the arrival of the British army.

The entrance of the governor-general, Lord Elgin, was a magnificent affair, and the interior of the city was in a state of jubilation.

The demands of state etiquette were satisfied, the docks were prepared for the great event of the day, the landing of the prince and the progress to the citadel. In the centre of the row of seats arranged for the occasion was Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the distinguished statesman, surrounded by dignitaries of state and church.

On the prince's return from his official visit, a magnificent procession of the prince and his entourage, accompanied by a small man wearing a general's uniform, wearing medals, and other insignia, and a row went up from the crown when they recognized the prince.

Earl Grey, Col. Denison, A.D.C., Capt. Newton, A.D.C., Sir Charles Gault and Col. Sowerby, the 19th Indian Lancers, accompanied him.

The Prince Lands. A few minutes later a tremendous cannonade from the harbor announced that the Prince had landed. Every warship booming out 21 guns, while the Union Jack was hoisted to the mast of all vessels.

STANDARD OIL GETS NEW TRIAL

Judgment Rendered by Judge Landis Reversed by Court of Appeals

FINE IMPOSED TOO HEAVY

Report That Judgment Will Be Followed By Increase of Capital

Chicago, July 22.—The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals in the Standard Oil $23,000,000 fine case, handed down today, reverses the decision of the lower court and orders a new trial.

Following the decision today of Judge Grosscup, Seaman and Baker, composing the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, reversing judgment in the case of the government against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, in which case Judge Landis in the district court had imposed a fine of $23,000,000, the Federal attorneys today announced that the government had thirty days within which to file a petition for a re-hearing and it would be filed within the allotted period.

In the case that was reversed today the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was found guilty of accepting rebates on shipments of oil from its refinery at Whiting, Ind., to East St. Louis, Illinois. Judge Landis fined the company $20,000 on each of 1,482 counts, each count representing a carload shipment.

Today's opinion of three judges of the higher court leaves little of the contention that each carload constituted a separate offense. Under the ruling of the court of appeals, the fine would have been based on settlements between the oil company and the oil company, the opinion holds. Of these there were just 36. The maximum fine on this basis would amount to $720,000 and the minimum $36,000. It is said that $22,000 is the total amount which the Standard Oil Company has paid on the settlements.

The decision is a reversal of the decision of Judge Landis, which was handed down in the lower court. The decision is a reversal of the decision of Judge Landis, which was handed down in the lower court.

The record of the present case contains over a million and a half words, and cost the government more than any other case that has been tried in the Federal courts. The government attorneys are to transfer the prosecution from the district court to the Western New York district or to the Eastern Tennessee court.

The most striking point of the decision follows: "Counsel for the government say in concluding their brief that the facts set out are sufficient to establish the guilt of the defendant. It is the duty of the court to see that the law is applied to the facts as they are presented. It is not the duty of the court to see that the law is applied to the facts as they are presented."

Commissioner Whipple seeks an agreement which will prevent netting in the Canadian as well as the American waters of Lake Champlain.

The decision is a reversal of the decision of Judge Landis, which was handed down in the lower court. The decision is a reversal of the decision of Judge Landis, which was handed down in the lower court.
