FASHIONABLE TAILORING.

A NEW DRESS

Strange as it may seem the whole human race is continuously in search of something new.

A NEW WORLD.

The astronomer spends his whole life among the heavenly luminaries, and goes into ecstasies of delight on finding

A NEW IDEA

As to its formation. Think of the days and nights spent by our poets and artists in search of something yet to be clothed in the poetry of languages, or the poetry of the canvas; some

That shall shake the world and carry their names down among the ages. The architect is delighted at the production of

A NEW RESIDENCE

On a fashionable thoroughfare. There is joy unknown and bliss unpeaken for a lady receives an offer of marriage. She knows then, in all her love of display, that she will have at least one magnificent

NEW DRESS.

So it is with man. He takes a pleasure in presenting a nice and attractive appearance. According to his means he, as the occasion demands, indulges in

A NEW SUIT.

He knows, too, where to get the handsomest, nicest fitting, most stylish and choicest garments in Toronto, and that is at

THE BLASTS OF WAR.

England Ceases Friendly Relations with Egypt. BOMBARDMENT COMMENCED.

Arabi Bey Determined not to Yield. ADJOURNMENT OF THE CONFERENCE.

Turkey Getting Ready—Statements in the Imperial Parliament. The scene of operations.

The scenes which witnessed the defeat of Mark Antony and the triumph of Nelson, have recurred to the first cannonade of a war whose progress none can forecast, but which may prove the most momentous of the century.

The declaration of war between England and Egypt was made yesterday morning and the bombardment of Alexandria commenced at 7 o'clock this morning. It was only a movement which likely threw Turkey into the frenzied embrace of Russia.

DECLARATION OF WAR. ALEXANDRIA, July 10.—Notice of the bombardment of Alexandria was given this morning by letter addressed to the governor by Admiral Seymour.

St. Louis, July 10.—Rev. Dr. Geo. Linton of the third Baptist church, whose evidence has been given in connection with the case of the late Mrs. D. W. Fitzgerald, is in the city.

St. Louis, July 10.—The convention of the Iron Moulders International Union, which was held here for the purpose of electing officers, is in session.
