

LIVELY MAYORALTY TALK
MEETINGS FOR DEPON, CLARKS AND ROGERS LAST NIGHT.

A Great Uproar at the "Mobility" Candidate's Hall.—"Tough" Dan" Frazee Used to Call on the Mayor, Mr. Dofe's Specialist St. Paul's Hall.

Some three hundred voters attended a meeting called by Ald. Rogers' supporters last night in St. George's Hall, Berkeley and Queen streets, the proceedings at which were of a most disorderly nature. Personalities and strong epithets were the order of the night, and it seems as though the wily fray would develop into farce. The first half-hour was calm, and thence for two hours the fray raged until the gas was turned off.

Ald. Fleming presided and was glad when the evening was over. Mr. H. O'Brien told the old story in Ald. Rogers' praise and received neither approval nor disapproval till he sarcastically commented on Mr. Robert Davies' application to prevent the license by law being submitted. There were mutterings from a crowd at the bottom of the hall, but nothing reached the platform till Mr. O'Brien asked for the return of Mr. Rogers, which was done with considerable difficulty, and "It will be Rogers' funeral."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is going to the poll and he has a large vote."

Mr. Dofe's supporters knew that he had been doing his best for the past two years, and Mr. Rogers will play the same tune and on the same note.

[Applause.] [Cries of "Never sheets and counter cheaters!"]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is going to the poll and he has a large vote."

Mr. Dofe's supporters knew that he had been doing his best for the past two years, and Mr. Rogers will play the same tune and on the same note.

[Applause.] [Cries of "Never sheets and counter cheaters!"]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is going to the poll and he has a large vote."

Mr. Dofe's supporters knew that he had been doing his best for the past two years, and Mr. Rogers will play the same tune and on the same note.

[Applause.] [Cries of "Never sheets and counter cheaters!"]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

Mr. Charles Goodale followed and sang the praises of the Howland regime. He had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It seemed as though the world would end if the election were held on December 1st." [Applause.]

The Chairmen here said: "Mr. Clarke is the only one who can do it."

COHNFIELD AND HIS BONDS

A WOMAN AND A TORONTO LAWYER TRY TO SELL THEM AT DETROIT.

Their Scheme Frustrated—New York Creditors and Mrs. Hoffman—Mrs. Hoffman—Carried to Canada.

DETROIT, Dec. 21.—Considerable of a sensation has been caused here by the appearance on Sunday of J. P. Clark, a man and woman who were registered at the Hoffman and Miss Hoffman, Clark and the woman, tried to sell $80,000 worth of United States bonds, as well as Detroit bank bonds, Monday, and a lady was arrested on suspicion. It became known that she had been living with two daughters and a large amount of money and securities. She has been living there under the name of Davis.

To-day a number of attachments were made to be put upon the bonds by New York creditors, but the police gave the bonds to the woman and released her, but brought her to the office of J. E. Kuhn, the Bowman, to get away from business. The announcement was made at New Orleans, Jan. 10, 1881, and addressed to Mr. Steichen, the Bowman, to get away from business. The announcement was made at New Orleans, Jan. 10, 1881, and addressed to Mr. Steichen, the Bowman, to get away from business.

Mr. Clark stated that she assisted her husband in searching through his office papers a few days ago, and he had given her $100.

Mr. Clark, a well-known New York dealer in furs and peltries, who made a disastrous failure last October, confined his wife to his room, and his wife, a daughter of Cohnfield's, and his mistress, they will stop in Windsor a few days yet.

Mr. Clark was the first speaker, and he had several good things to say about Mr. Dofe's record in the Council. Mr. Saunders spoke from a personal knowledge of the man, and said: "It is not true that Mr. Dofe is a bad man; he has done a great deal for the city, and he is a good man."

Mr. Clark, however, blandly smiled, held up his hands, and declared of the hoisting and called on Mr. Dofe, "You are a fool," and interruption.

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool," and his wife declared herself a ruined man.

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."

Mr. Dofe retorted, "I am a fool."

Mr. Clark, however, continued, "I am a fool."