Mr. Fred Cable, who has been confined to his bed with a heavy cold is now slowly improving.

Miss Jennie Vance has had the pleasure of entertaining her sister, Miss Sarah Vance of Toronto this last week.

On Oct. 23rd at the home of Mrs.
Freeman Birchard, Kingscourt, a bale was packed to be sent to India, consisting of seven pillow slips, two quilts and fifty-seven children's dresses. Bale valued at $75.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Smith were tendered a kitchen shower last Tuesday night, Oct. 17, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Smith, twelve side-road, when about sixty of the neighbors and friends gathered and spent a very enjoyable evening in music and games, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

An exceptionally fine crop of potatoes was harvested this year, by Messrs. John Scoffin and Fred Gram-ham of Warwick. They have just finished digging their crop, and as a reward, they have 600 bags of the tubers. They are the Green Mountain and Carmen No. 1 variety and are excellent sample of potatoes.
The yield was secured from a planting of seven and a half acres.

Mrs. Henry Curtis of Warwick had a narrow escape from serious injury when a horse she was driving attached to a buggy was frightened at a pile of shingles on the side of the road on the 6th line of Warwick, and became unmanageable. Mrs.
Curtis was thrown out and the horse became separated from the buggy and was caught by Mr. D. Kernohan.
Mrs. Curtis escaped any serious injury but received a severe shock from the accident.

"SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS" COMING TO WATFORD

Lyceum Theatre, Tuesday, Oct. 31st Harold Bell Wright clings to tunes of yesterday in arranging musical accomplishments. The Shepherd of the Hills is a striking film drama. Mr.
Wright has defied all standards of motion picture production. He has transferred to the screen the page of his famous novel, chapter by chapter, exactly as they are in story form. It is more than a masterpiece.
It is an inspiration. This production played Massey Hall, Toronto, Christmas and New Year's week will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre, Watford, for one night only, Tuesday, October 31st. In the Shepherd of the Hills, Harold Bell Wright has produced what is probably a unique production within the memory of even the most ancient play goers.
