

NEWS FROM BANDS.

CHATHAM MISSION BAND.—We have a good live Band with a membership of forty. We have collected $24.74, paid home missions $12.00, foreign $10.47. Made a text quilt and raised $10 on it and made life member of our Secretary; sent the quilt to the school in Grand Ligne. Have had very interesting meetings, readings, and talks on missions by our older members, and teaching the children about our work in India, where we support a student.

CLARA SAINSBURY,
Secretary.

BRAMPTON.—Willing Workers Mission Band held their regular meeting on the 25th of Oct. After the usual opening exercises and business which was conducted by our President, Miss Pratley, we had a good programme of solos, recitations and readings, and last but not least, an address by our pastor, which was listened to attentively and enjoyed. The prospect for the coming year is encouraging. Besides supporting the student we hope to do something extra to help on the Forward Movement. Band closed with an attendance of 28. Collection 53 cents.

ETTA BARTLETT,
Secretary.

OWEN SOUND.—The Carey Mission Band held its annual entertainment on the evening of Thanksgiving day, October 19th. The program consisted of choruses, recitations, dialogues and a fancy drill.

A recitation by a group of girls.

The "Tabernacle" deserves special mention. Also a dialogue by four girls, introducing the dress of a Hindu woman and girl.

A quartette "The Homeland," by members of the choir was very much enjoyed, as was the program throughout. Silver collection was received, amounting to $15.50, which substitutes the contribution of the Band towards the support of their student at Samulcotta Seminary.

The Band as usual found the aid of the Bureau invaluable in procuring suitable selections, and warmly appreciated Mrs. King's helpful suggestions, and untiring assistance.

The annual meeting of the Carey Mission Band was held on the evening of November 10th.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, Miss Maughan; Vice-president, Miss May Ham; Secretary, Miss Ruth Clay; Treasurer, Miss Eva Pearce; Corresponding-Secretary, Miss Lottie Day.
