COMPOUND
CHAMOMILE CORDIAL.

THIS Cordial as its name announces, is prepared scientifically by a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, from the Flowers of Chamomile, and other valuable ingredients, imported especially from England. Not only as a Tonic does it stand unrivaled, but its peculiar medicinal virtues have secured a fully established reputation among the learned & accurate, in which, in point of time and taste and flavor, as well as in practical effects, it is incomparably superior.

These invaluable virtues, while fully preserved, are more delicately concentrated and developed in the Cordial, which from its transparent and golden colour, resembles Wine, and as such may be used in dietetic. The flavor is fresh and fragrant, and the taste most grateful and agreeable, likewise, rather to the body, than to the temper, or digestive organs.

TESTIMONIALS:

Toronto, June 20th, 1852.

Messrs. Rexford & Co.

GENTLEMEN.—We have tested the Sample Bottle, with which you favored us, of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and find it as you describe, elegant and agreeable to the palate, and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are, &c.,

GENTLEMEN.—I duly received and have tried the sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me.

Asoe of the interest in which you prepare it, and of the nature and quality of the ingredients which you employ in its manufacture, I cannot suggest to you in my writing my opinion of it, which I should not venture to do under different circumstances.

I consider it a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, especially of those in so exceedingly useful in a dietary as well as therapeutic point of view. It will serve as an excellent substitute for much of the躺 which is prepared as Wine for the use of invalids; and will also prove an excellent medium for the agreeable conveyance of remedies, which, without some auxiliary, are often rejected against and rejected by the stomach.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours, &c.,

Messrs. Rexford & Co.

GENTLEMEN.—I duly received and have tried the Sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me. Consider it a very elegant Preparation, and useful in all cases where a mild Tonic is required, more especially in cases of Dyspepsia, and the weakness of the Stomach, it being very agreeable to taste, can be taken by any one.

Messrs. Rexford & Co.

GENTLEMEN.—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly judicious preparation. The aromatic and peculiar flavor thereof, in which lies the essential Medicinal qualities, appear to be largely infused and well preserved; and as this vegetable Wine is highly nutritious in those forms of dyspepsia, depending on dulness, or want of tone of the digestive organs, (the form most frequently met with on this continent,) your Cordial will, I doubt not, form an invaluable addition to our Pharmacopeia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford, and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist, I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to my professional brethren, and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c.,

GEORGE HOLME,
Physician.

Messrs. Rexford & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN.—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my professional approbation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile, with which it is finely tinctured, are so universally acknowledged, and the Medicinal qualities of that vegetable ingredient so fully admitted, in Dyspeptic complaints, that I consider the use of it, transferring it in the pleasing form of a Cordial most happy; and

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THE elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever offered to the public, for Preserving and Restoring the hair, it prevents redness or grey hair, and dandruff and ringworm, and what is of the highest importance, is, that it is within most other Toilet preparations, being perfectly harmless, yet successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautifully soft, smooth and glossy appearance; in this it so differs from other preparations all of which render or less render and dry the hair. The Spanish ladies so justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original color to the last period of life, only making it assume a darker shade of originally very light. Dried hair becomes dry and falls out of the skin.

The Invigorator removes such disease, and refreshes the skin and hair to a healthy condition.
