T. F. POTTERINGHAM, Convener.
ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 18, 1889

REV. W. G. MILLS, B.A., of Sunderland, has returned from his trans-Atlantic trip.

HON. AND REV. R. MORETON, of Hamilton, has been giving a series of Bible Readings in Montreal.

THE pulpit of Knox church, Toronto, was occupied Sabbath morning, Sept. 22nd, by Rev. Principal MacVicar, Presbyterian College, Montreal.

REV. W. URQUHART, of Dunwich, Presbytery of London, has declined the call to Berne, Duff, and Chalmers congregations, Maitland Presbytery.

REV. J. H. MACVICAR, on his way to the Honan Mission Field, occupied the pulpit of Central church, city, Sabbath evening, 22nd ult., preaching very acceptably to a large audience.

REV. F. M. DEWEY and his bride received last week a hearty reception from the congregation of Stanley street, Montreal, who assembled to welcome them on their return from a trip to Europe.

THE new organ present-d to the Uxbridge congregation by a band of young ladies, known as “The Willing Workers,” at a cost of $1,500, was opened recently by Prof. Garrett, of Brantford Ladies’ College, and is pronounced to be a very fine instrument.

ON the 8th ult., Rev. J. K. Smith, late of Galt, was formally inducted into the pastorate of St. John’s church, San Francisco, Cal., of which he has been stated supply for the last eighteen months. During this period numerous additions have been made to the pastorate of the congregation.

THE Rev. John Gauld of Hamilton, at the end of August, concluded a period of three months’ pulpit and pastoral work, in the room of Rev. J. McNair, Owen Sound Presbytery, during which the attendance of both congregations was most creditable to the people and most encouraging to the minister.

DR. COCHRANE has received the sum of $125 from Dumfries street Presbyterian church, Paris, being half of the $250 which the congregation have agreed to pay for the support of a missionary in the North-West. This $250 is in addition to their regular contributions to the Home Mission Fund. Mr. Cockburn, the pastor, takes a deep interest in our Home Mission work.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY KINGSTON.

Met at Kingston and within Cooke’s Church there on the 17th ult. Application was made to the Congregation of Geneva, Harrowsmith and Milton for moderation in a call to a minister. The application was received, and Mr. McGillivray, of Kingston, appointed to attend to the matter. Mr. Millard gave in his resignation of the pastoral charge of the congregation of Lansdowne, Fairfax and Sind Bay. The resignation was laid on the table in the meantime, and the Session and the congregation were cited to appear for their interests at an adjourned meeting of Presbytery to be held in Kingston on the 5th of October next, at 3 p.m. A call from the congregations of Melrose, Lansdale and Shannonville in favour of James Rattray, B.A., was presented and read. Parties were heard in support, after which it was sustained and handed to Mr. Rattray for his decision. Having signified his acceptance of said call, his ordination and induction were appointed to take place at Melrose, on Thursday, the 10th of October prox., at half past two o’clock in the afternoon. Mr. McLean to preside, Mr. McKinnon to preach, Mr. Craig to address the minister, and Mr. Young the people. A circular from the Conveners of the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees was submitted and read, from which it appeared that the amounts required for this Presbytery for the year of 1889, for Home Missions is $1,650, and for Augmentation is $1,150. On motion by Mr. Gracey, duly seconded, it was agreed as follows:—“The Presbytery instructs each pastor to take an early opportunity of laying before the people of his charge the special claims of the Home Mission Committee and Augmentation, and urging them to special liberality in supporting these schemes, and as there is a considerable deficit in each fund on last year’s operations, it is recommended that a contribution be given to meet the deficit before October.” It was further moved by Mr. Laird, seconded by Professor Fowler, and agreed to:—“That in view of the very small increase in the stipends of augmented congregations by themselves, the Presbytery earnestly and hopefully recommends these congregations to take the subject into their early and serious consideration, so as to be able to relieve the fund and thus encourage the efforts of the General Assembly in these important schemes.” Mr. Hugh Walker, a member of the Session of St. Andrew’s Church, Belleville, was added to the Presbytery’s Home Mission Committee. The Presbytery adjourned to meet again on the 8th of October next, in Cooke’s Church, Kingston, at three o’clock in the afternoon, and thereafter in Belleville, and within St. Andrew’s Church there, at half past seven o’clock in the evening.—A. YOUNG, Clerk.

Minard’s Liniment is the Best.

READ THIS; IT IS SPICY.

SINCE the time when gloomy-visaged Columbus discovered America and called it the Indies, the Western World has been a veritable Cave of Adullam, to which the discontented of all nations resort. It is so seldom, however, that a man, prosperous, well-liked, and with troops of friends, resolves to cross the ocean and make his home in an unknown land, that one must needs take some special interest in his history. Mr. Thomas Myers is a middle-aged, ruddy complexioned, full-bearded, hearty-voiced Englishman, who over a quarter of a century ago began the manufacture of Cattle Spice, a condiment for mixing with cattle food. Spices have been used with human food for centuries, and it is to be wondered at that no one ever attempted to apply the idea of food savouring to the lower animals.

The cattle spice was built after modern designs. The material used was altogether vegetable and botanical, with nothing of a mineral nature about it.

Her Majesty the Queen bought the Royal Spice for her model farm at Windsor, and the Kings of Holland and Belgium, the Prince of Wales, and a mighty host of dignitaries of the Empire, including the Governor General, Lord Stanley, fattened their prize cattle with fodder judiciously sprinkled with the Royal Spice.

Mr. Myers arrived in Toronto about a week ago, and may be seen at his office, 18 King St. East, where his assistants will be glad to give proof of the excellence of the goods.

Mr. Myers intends to build up in America a business similar to and greater than—for there is more room for it—the one he left in the Old World. We have no Kings here to patronize his efforts, but Mr. Myers is content to leave the Royal Spice in the safe keeping of the Sovereign people.

THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES
CURED BY MEDICATED AIR.

DR. ROBERT HUNTER, of New York and Chicago, the founder of this practice, in association with his brother, Dr. James Hunter, has established a branch for Canada, at 73 Bay Street, Toronto, where all forms of throat and lung disease are treated as successfully as in New York or London.

Their treatment by medicated air inhalations is so successful, that it has been adopted in all Hospitals for the special treatment of the lungs, in England and throughout Europe, where Dr. Robert Hunter introduced it in person, as he is now doing in Canada.

Patients can be treated at home. On application, a pamphlet explaining the treatment, and list of questions to be answered, is sent, and on its return, Dr. Hunter gives his opinion of the case.

Those who come to town for examination, can return home and carry out the treatment.

Address, Drs. R. & J. Hunter, 73 Bay Street, Toronto, Ont.
