

There is a paper published in Dublin called The People, which is understood to be the organ of the Fenian Brotherhood...

THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP GILLIS, D. D.—The death of the Right Rev. Bishop Gillis has awakened in all classes, and among the members of every religious persuasion throughout Edinburgh, deep and reverential feelings of regret...

give a better one—if they can. Well, then, in the first place, the present Premier's popularity may be mainly traced to his dash—to the belief, long prevalent, that he was equal to any emergency...

CRUISERS IN THE BRITISH CHANNEL.—It appears that suspicious-looking steamers industriously ply among the homeward bound fleet, inquiring of each vessel whether she is English or German...

than half of these instances the mother and father jointly subscribed the entry; 12 of these couples were subsequently married before the year was out...

The news from Ireland (much more satisfactory than when it tells of Rotundo meetings and of Fenians and Goulahs), is of sundry Orangemen, sentenced to a mild, short imprisonment...

What Bishop Gillis seems to have aimed at was, in his district, to restate the Catholic Church in all her former splendour. His conceptions were far in advance of his age...

extract the following from an Edinburgh paper:—"AN OLD KING"—A good deal of talk has been occasioned in Edinburgh circles during the week by the decision of the Lord Chancellor in respect to the famous case of the old Trinity College Church...

LETTERS INEDITA.—Sir, Tractarians, English Church Unionists, or (to speak unreservedly) Romanisers, are much in the habit of asserting that their pernicious doctrines and practices were those of the early Church...

UNITED STATES.—THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD DISCOUNTENANCED.—The Fenian is the title of a paper published at Chicago as the organ of the Fenian Brotherhood...

ILLEGAL DRILLING AND FEDERAL ENLISTMENT IN IRELAND.—To the Editor of the London Times.—Sir, Many of your English readers are not aware of what extent illegal drilling and Federal enlistment are carried on in the southern parts of Ireland...

THE PALMERSTON MINISTRY.—Its Fall Foreshadowed.—The House is tumbling down. Lord Palmerston's popularity is waning, and the probability is that, before midsummer, we shall be in the throes of a general election...

THE COMPARATIVE NAVAL STRENGTH OF ENGLAND AND FRANCE.—In Parliament last week Col. Sykes—acting on Mr. Cobden's repeated counsel, and supplying in some measure his unfortunate lack of voice—demonstrated from the budget of the French Minister of Marine for the present year...

TRADITIONS.—The Registrar of Dunbar, Haddingtonshire, had to record in his bill of mortality for 1862 the death of a seaman who fought under Nelson at the Nile and Trafalgar...

FEDERAL FEELING TOWARDS ENGLAND.—The recent news from Europe has been received with unmitigated delight by that amiable section of the people of this country who hate Great Britain as ardently as they love the Union...

THE CORK CONSTITUTION AFTER QUOTING THE TIMES' CORRESPONDENT ON THE DOG NUISANCE SUBJECT.—If ever a tax was acceptable, it would be a tax that would make the owners of the dogs feel the inconvenience of them...

CONVARIATION.—Mr. Basil Chambers, M.A., of Liverpool, has just receded from the Church of England, and joined that of the Catholic. It is understood that Mr. Chambers intends taking Orders in the Catholic Church...

SHIPS IN COMMISSION.—A statement made up to 1st of December shows that at that date we had 157 sea-going ships in commission, all steamers—namely 10 line-of-battle ships, 5 iron-cased ships, 44 frigates and corvettes, and 98 sloops, small vessels, and gunboats...
