Harte's Concentrated Lye.

The great popularity which this old and well-known household requisite has acquired has led to numerous imitations, and stores have been flooded with a lot of rubbish which may well be christened Concentrated Lies, and numbers of dealers, who ought to know better, palm off this stuff on their unsuspecting customers, who think they are getting the genuine article, and only find out their mistake when too late. In order to avoid disappointment, see that the words "GLASGOW DRUG HALL" are stamped on the lid of each tin of the Genuine Lye.
