

the best literature and art, and with all their best impulses quickened? There is a way to do it at an expense of less than one cent a day,—a way to have in your home the greatest educational influence of our time.

"St. Nicholas for Young Folks" is the medium—a magazine absolutely unequalled in the literature of the world. It is recommended by educators everywhere,—it contains only the very best and most helpful and entertaining literature, and it is illustrated by the greatest of American illustrators.

some new features are to be introduced into this famous periodical—one is the printing of long stories complete in a single number—no

is now a great feature of St. Nicholas. The young readers ask questions and they are answered in a department called "Nature and Science." Private schools take the magazine for this alone. The "St. Nicholas League" is an organization of St. Nicholas readers where prizes are offered for the best pictures, stories, poems, etc.
